

The Final Judgment, Part 4

All glory be to the Father, יהוה, and to His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, in the highest. Give Him all praise, all exaltation, and all glorification, all ye heavens. Make a joyful noise unto God, יהוה בן יהוה, all ye lands: Sing forth the honor of His name: make His praise glorious. Say unto God, יהוה בן יהוה, how terrible art Thou in Thy works! Through the greatness of Thy power shall Thine enemies submit themselves unto Thee. All the earth shall worship Thee, and shall sing unto Thee; they shall sing to Thy name. Selah. (Psalm 66:1-4).

Let God, יהוה בן יהוה, arise, let His enemies be scattered: let them that hate Him flee before Him. As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: as wax melteth before the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God, יהוה בן יהוה. Sing unto יהוה בן יהוה, sing praises to His name: extol Him that rideth upon the heavens by His name, יהוה בן יהוה, and rejoice before Him (Psalm 68:1-4).

Sing unto God, יהוה, ye kingdoms of the earth; O, sing praises unto the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה; Selah. Ascribe ye strength unto God, יהוה: His excellency is over Israel, and His strength is in the clouds (Psalm 68:32, 34).

For יהוה בן יהוה is the Judge: He putteth down one, and setteth up another (Psalm 75:7). Thou, even Thou, O יהוה בן יהוה, art to be feared: and who may stand in Thy sight when Thou art angry? Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven: the earth feared, and was still, when יהוה בן יהוה arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth. Selah. (Psalm 76:7-9).

He, יהוה בן יהוה, shall judge Thy people with righteousness, and Thy poor with judgment. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness. He shall judge the poor of the people; He shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. They shall fear Thee, O Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations. In His days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth. Yea, all kings shall fall down before Him: all nations shall serve Him.

His name shall endure forever: His name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in Him: all nations shall call Him Blessed. Blessed be the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things. Blessed be His glorious name forever: and let the whole earth be filled with His glory. For the coming of the Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, draweth nigh (Psalm 72:2-5, 7, 11, 17-19; James 5:8).

Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

In part three of The Final Judgment, we laid out in authoritative detail how Babylon, America, will be taken. It was well documented and thoroughly established that at the United Nations, יהוה בן יהוה shall judge Babylon (the United States of America) by calling into account all the transgressions she has committed, and He shall give the order for America to be taken.

We discovered that Babylon (the United States of America) shall be invaded by an assembly of great nations and that with the combined military, naval, and air power of their respective nations, they shall bring America to her knees. As a result of her defeat, America shall lose her strength to remain a superpower and a democracy; thereby, collapsing entirely.

Details were revealed as to how her collapse shall be. Babylon (the United States of America) shall no longer be able to provide the basic necessities for her own people. Not only that, but she shall no longer have the materials and provisions necessary to reinforce and maintain her military with men, ships, and aircraft and shall no longer be able to keep her currency, her possessions, or her properties. Additionally, Babylon (the United States of America) shall no longer be able to maintain her economy, employment, resources, or investments, and as a result, she shall be so destitute of finances she shall no longer be able to support the simple comforts of her people.

We also learned that not only will Babylon (the United States of America) fall completely in the sight of all the nations, but also all those joined with her shall fall as well. This is to say that all United States government officials shall no longer have any authority or influence and, resultantly, shall be completely stripped of rank and position.

Furthermore, these government officials, which include the President, Senators, Congressmen, other politicians, judges, and the like, will no longer be able to exercise any of their power—for they shall have none. This also includes all business men, millionaires, billionaires, investors, tycoons, magnates who control the banks, as well as corporations, companies, conglomerates, firms, and the like, in Babylon, America, shall be brought to nothing. So shall all doctors, engineers, athletes, theologians, physicists, and the like, be brought to ruin.

All those who make a livelihood in this once great nation shall be brought to poverty, for Babylon (the United States of America) shall be wholly deprived of inhabitants, and she shall be depopulated for the assembly of great nations shall spare none of their weapons. Praise יהוה!
Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

Welcome to The Final Judgment, Part Four. In today's seminar, we will decode the Babylonian false gods of the past, in order to expose who they represent in modern-day Babylon (the United States of America). In the past, when a righteous king recognized that Israel was worshipping false gods, he would demolish and bring down the high places of the heathen, their altars and their many false idols (2 Kings 23:5-16). Therefore, when Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, The Righteous King of Israel, returns, He shall do the same.

יהוה changes not (Malachi 3:6). This means that all He said and did in the past, as recorded by the prophets of old, shall be the same when He returns. This should not be a mystery to anyone who understands the Bible, especially in terms of what the Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, shall do at His Second Coming. What He shall do at His return is, pass His Final Judgment upon the seed of Cain, who are sitting in high places and oppressing all the people of earth.

This being true, when He shall administer His Final Judgment at the United Nations, His appearance on the world stage shall cause all tongues to confess that He is the Almighty God! At this time, all knees shall bow before Him. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

This review has laid the premise for today's study, so let us begin by reading our foundation Scripture in the Book of Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2, which reads in part:

...Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken in pieces.

When יהוה בן יהוה appears at the United Nations as "Christ" and "Judge" on the last day of wicked rule, His divine manifestation shall cause Bel to be confounded. For this reason, we must understand who Bel represents today.

From the authority of The Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible, copyright 1962, on page 376, Bel is "the title of the state god of Babylon." Another definition for Bel in the New Unger's Bible Dictionary, copyright 1957, on page 153, is "the national god of Babylonia."

When we combine these two definitions, we can deduce that today, in modern terms, Bel symbolizes the title of the state and national god of Babylonia or Babylon (the United States of America).

To expose in detail who Bel represents today, it is important that we define the noun, god, first; and then, define the three adjectives: title, state, and national.

In The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 465, god is synonymous to divinity; and on page 317, divinity is the same as religion.

From these characterizations, we now understand that Bel symbolizes the title of the state and national religion of Babylon (the United States of America). In order to portray this Babylonian (American) religion in further detail, we must now define the three words just mentioned: title, state, and national.

Title, which is defined in the Compact Edition of the Oxford English Dictionary, Volume II, copyright 1971, on page 3335 is "a denomination." Denomination, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 602, is classified as "a religious group or a community of believers called by the same name."

Based on this information, it is evident that Bel symbolizes the religious groups or communities of believers that are called by the same name. What are these believers called by? We will define the word denomination from another source for the answer.

Denomination, in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, reference number 81.4, is designated as "church." Church, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 404, is the same as, "the organization of Christianity or of an association of Christians." And Christian, in Webster's II New College Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 199, is defined as, "one who professes belief in Jesus as Christ or follows the religion based on his teachings."

From these respectable sources, we can affirm that the first description of Bel, which is the religion of Babylon (the United States of America), in today's terms, is known as religious groups or communities of believers that are called by the same name, Christians. These believers are organized under Christianity, and are an association of Christians who profess their belief in Jesus as Christ, or follow the religion based on his teachings.

Moreover, Bel, symbolic of Christianity, is also described as the state and national religion of Babylon, America. These are the two remaining descriptions of Bel to be defined.

In keeping with The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1160-1161, state is synonymous to celebratory. Celebrate, the root of celebratory, in Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1979, on page 177, is described as "to honor (as a holy day) by solemn ceremonies or by refraining from ordinary business; to play up for public acclaim." Still utilizing the aforementioned source, solemn, on page 1133, is the same as formal and devotional; while ceremony, the singular form of ceremonies, on page 156, is a service. Finally, acclaim, on page 12 of Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, means to "welcome with praise; to proclaim approvingly."

With these additional facts, it is apparent why Bel, symbolized today as Christianity, the state religion of America, is depicted as celebratory. It is because the government honors Christian holidays with formal and devotional services. They refrain from ordinary business, and play them up so that the public will welcome them with praise and proclaim them approvingly.

Now, we must define the third and final description of Bel, which is national. National, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 1505, means "maintained by the government of a nation." The Macmillan Dictionary, copyright 1987, on page 615, defines maintain as "to insist on the truth of; to provide for the support of." In The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1196, support means with aid; while aid, on page 36-37, is described as an advantage. Advantage, on page 28, is the same as a privilege. Lastly, according to Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, reference 434.8, privilege is, "tax-exempt."

We can verify from this evidence that Bel, symbolic of Christianity today, is the national religion of Babylon (the United States of America). As the national religion, the government insists that the tenants and dogma of Christianity are truth. They perpetuate this false religion by giving all Christian churches, organizations, and movements tax exemptions.

Furthermore, currently in America, this religion is big on holidays and celebrations, and the government upholds them, thus giving them credibility and respectability. During Christmas, which is widely regarded as the birth date of Jesus, the President lights the National Christmas Tree in front of the White House, and all federal buildings and offices are closed. Also, Christians believe that the Easter holiday commemorates when Jesus rose on the third day and ascended. The government of America honors this holiday and has an Easter Egg Roll on the White House lawn. This evidence verifies that the religion of Christianity is maintained, aided, and approved by the government of Babylon (the United States of America).

However, at the return of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, He shall judge modern-day Babylon (The United States of America), Bel (Christianity) and all of its Christian denominations, churches, organizations, and movements—such as, the Lutheran, Anglicans, Presbyterians, Anabaptists, Methodists, Pietists, Baptists, Pentecostals, Seventh Day Adventists and Jehovah's Witnesses, just to name a few. THEY SHALL ALL BE CONFOUNDED, according to Jeremiah, Chapter 50 verse 2:

...Bel (Christianity) is confounded, ...

On the authority of The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, reference number 3001, confounded is yabesh in Hebrew, and it is transliterated as "confused." Confuse, on page 293 of Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 1988, is defined as "to mix up mentally; specifically to bewilder; perplex; to embarrass."

Thus, we can determine from these definitions that Bel, symbolic of Christianity, and its Christian churches, organizations and movements shall be mixed up mentally. In other words, all Christians shall be bewildered, perplexed and embarrassed when the true Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, returns. To be more specific, let us closely examine bewilder, perplex, and embarrass.

Bewilder, on page 134, of the aforementioned Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 1988, means "to confuse hopelessly, as by something involved." On page 703, involve, in Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1980, is "to engage the interests or emotions or commitment of; to preoccupy or absorb fully." Now, perplexed in the Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 1988, on page 1007, is described as "full of doubt or uncertainty; puzzled; hard to understand."

And embarrass, in the same source, on page 442, is the same as “to cause difficulties to; to cause to be in debt; cause financial difficulties to.”

From these definitions, we can substantiate that those who believe in and follow Bel, which is the religion of Christianity, shall be mixed up mentally. In fact, all Christians who have unquestionably believed in this false religion shall be confused hopelessly. They were completely loyal with their interests, with their emotions, and in their commitment to this false religion—only to find out it is built on lies.

Even more, all Christians, who preoccupied themselves with and absorbed all of the teachings and doctrines of Christianity, as well as those who profess to follow the belief of Jesus as Christ, shall be full of doubt and uncertainty as to what to believe, who to trust, and which way to go.

The Second Coming of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, shall cause all Christians to be puzzled: they shall find it hard to believe that they have inherited lies from their fathers: that their hope is lost; their conviction is artificial; their faith lacks foundation; their expectations are not real; and their devotion is blasphemous and sacrilegious.

All of the Christian leaders, pastors, ministers, priests, preachers and the like, who have collected billions of dollars in the name of Jesus, shall experience many difficulties, problems, and evils from their false teachings. For their flock of believers shall eventually stop attending church service, paying tithes, and making donations, which will cause them to go into debt and face financial difficulties.

It is certain that the return of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, shall cause the followers of Bel (Christianity) to be confounded. We shall now look at the word confound from another perspective.

According to Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1979, on page 235, confound, the root word of confounded, is said to mean "destroy." Destroy, in the same source, on page 306, is the same as "demolish." To demolish, on page 299, is to "discredit." Discredit, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 647, is defined as "to deprive of credibility; to refuse to accept as true; destroy confidence or trust in." And lastly, credibility, in the same source, on page 532, is tantamount to "the power of inspiring belief."

Based on the veracity of these facts, we can conclude that at the Second Coming of יהוה בן יהוה, He shall deprive Bel—which is symbolic today as Christianity and all Christian churches, organizations and movements—of the power to inspire belief upon all good and moral men. יהוה בן יהוה shall cause all moral people to refuse to accept as true the false teachings and belief of Jesus as Christ. The reappearance of יהוה בן יהוה in the earth shall destroy the confidence and trust that all Christian followers had in their false god, Jesus, and the false religion of Christianity as taught by all Christian leaders in their churches, organizations and movements. Let us turn to and read Isaiah, Chapter 2, verse 11:

The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the Lord, יהוה alone shall be exalted in that day.

Also, let us read Jeremiah, Chapter 16, verse 19:

*O Lord, יהוה, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto Thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and things wherein there is no profit.

We will now move on to the next phrase in our foundation Scripture in Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2, which reads in part:

. . . Merodach is broken in pieces;. . .

We must keep in mind that historically, "Merodach was another name for the Babylonian god, Bel," according to The Interpreter's Dictionary, copyright 1962, page 376. These gods were the same; they were just known by different names. Bel is the religion of America, which is comprised of people who believe in Jesus. Merodach is a Babylonian god, but is known by a different name. Let us prove this statement.

According to the Gesenius' Hebrew-Chaldee Lexicon to the Old Testament, copyright 1979, Merodach, under reference number 4781 is transliterated as "the planet Mars."

Thus, we see that Merodach was a Babylonian god of yesterday; but today is a religion in America depicted as the planet Mars. Let us not stare into the heavens. This has nothing to do with outer space or with the solar system. We must break down the words planet and Mars, as these are cryptic words that will reveal who Merodach actually symbolizes today.

As referenced in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, reference number 7.16, planet is synonymous to "earth." Earth, in the same source, reference number 8.6, is synonymous to "globe." The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 461, describes globe as a sphere. A sphere, on page 1144, is depicted as a realm. Realm, on page 991, is the same as an empire. And Mars is described as, "the Roman god of war" (as documented in Webster's New World Dictionary for Young Readers, copyright 1979, on page 450).

These definitions further explain that Merodach is an empire described or known today as the Roman god of war. We are talking about a "false" god. Earlier in this study, we learned that the word god is synonymous to divinity, which means a religion. Therefore, we can ascertain which religion this is referring to by defining the words Roman and war, coming from the definition of Mars: "the Roman god (religion) of war." Therefore, we are talking about an empire known today as the Roman religion of war.

Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2004, on page 1244, defines Roman as "of the Roman Catholic Church." In Funk & Wagnall's New Comprehensive International Dictionary of the English Language, Deluxe Edition, Volume II, on page 1092, it states that the Roman Catholic Church is "the church in communion with the pope, whom it recognizes as its supreme head on earth." Another definition for Roman Catholic Church in Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1936, on page 864, is classified as "that body of Christians of which the pope is the head; ... called Catholic Church by its members."

These authenticated facts confirm that Merodach symbolizes an empire that is known today as a religion under the name of the Roman Catholic Church. This is the church which is in communion with the Pope and considers him their supreme head on earth. This church is comprised of a body of Christians who consider the Pope as their head and call themselves the Catholic Church. Furthermore, let us not forget that this religion is described as a religion of war.

We will now explain why this empire, known today as the Roman Catholic Church, is portrayed as a "religion of war."

War in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, reference number 412.1, is the same as "crusade." Crusade in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 1995, on page 327 is defined as "any war carried on under papal sanction; any of the military expeditions undertaken by the Christians of Europe in the 11th, 12th, and 13th centuries to recover the Holy Land from the Muslims."

Trusting in the credibility of these sources, this empire—known today as the Roman Catholic Church—is considered a religion of war because of its historic crusades. It was the Roman Catholic Church, under papal sanction, that carried out military expeditions, undertaken by the Christians of Europe in the 11th, 12th and 13th centuries, for the recovery of the Holy Land from the Muslims.

We shall proceed to define the word war from its verb form to see additional reasons why this religion is described as such. On the authority of The American Heritage Dictionary, copyright 1982, on page 1362, war is defined as “to state one’s intent to suppress.” State, in Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1979, on page 1127, is defined as, “to set by authority.” Intent in Funk & Wagnall’s College Standard Dictionary, copyright 1942, on page 602, is cited as “aim; purpose.”

While, suppress, in the Shorter Oxford English Dictionary, copyright 1933, on page 2087, is defined as “to withhold from publication (a book, or writing); to keep secret”; withhold, in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1348, is the same as prohibit, conceal, silence. On page 959, publication is synonymous to disclosure, revelation, dissemination.

These facts uncover the history of the Roman Catholic Church under papal sanction and reveal how military expeditions were undertaken by the Christians of Europe in the 11th, 12th, and 13th centuries to recover the Holy Land from the Muslims. Not only did the Pope and the ones in authority in the church sanction the crusades; but they also set forth in writing their secret aim and purpose to deliberately prohibit, conceal, and silence this from public disclosure, revelation, and dissemination as in a book or other publication, to keep this knowledge from the masses. The question is what book or writing have they kept secret? The word book must be examined.

In Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 252, book is designated as "bible." In The American Heritage Dictionary, copyright 1982, on page 175, bible is defined as "a particular copy of a bible." Particular, in the same source on page 905, means "worthy of note; exceptional."

Another definition for the word particular in Funk & Wagnall's College Standard Dictionary, copyright 1942, on page 827, is "comprising all details and circumstances." Now copy, in Macmillan Dictionary, copyright 1983, on page 223, is defined as a "reproduction of an original."

Original in The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 816, corresponds to primary, first, initial, and earliest.

From these additional facts, we can assert that the Pope of yesterday and today, as well, is the one in authority in the Roman Catholic Church. He has used this false religion to prohibit, conceal, and silence the passages and writings of the Bible, that are worthy of note, exceptional and that comprise all details and circumstance, from being disclosed, revealed and disseminated. The church has concealed the reproduction of the primary, first, initial and earliest writings of the Holy Bible, which has been kept secret until this day.

How has the Roman Catholic Church, under papal sanction, been able to keep it secret until this day? The word secret, derived from the word suppress, which came from the word war must be studied. The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 623, depicts keep as to preserve, maintain, secure and conserve. While preserve in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 1794, is defined as "to keep intact, in existence, or from decay"; secret, in the same source, on page 2052, means, "kept from knowledge or view; revealed only to the initiated,” and initiate, in the same source, on page 1164, is denoted as “to receive or induct into membership of a society.”

These facts establish the manner in which this powerful empire, known as the Roman Catholic Church, has kept secret the original passages of the Holy Bible until this day. The ones in authority have kept intact, in existence, and from decay the passages and writings that are worthy of note, exceptional, and that comprise all details and circumstances. Furthermore, they have maintained, secured, and conserved the reproduction of the primary, first, initial, and earliest writings of the Holy Bible from the knowledge or view of the masses; and they have revealed them only to those whom they have received or inducted into the membership of their secret societies, which are known by few people.

Nevertheless, the Spirit of Truth, יהוה בן יהוה came and revealed the truth to His disciples, loosed the seven seals of the book, revealed the mysteries of the Bible to our minds, where we can now stand with the helmet of truth and salvation clothed with the Holy Ghost and comforted with His Word. יהוה בן יהוה is revealing those things that were sealed in the dark so that those that receive Him may bring them into the light.

Hallelu יהוה בן יהוה!

Though the Roman Catholic Church is most powerful in concealing the truth, Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2 declares that,

'... Merodach is broken in pieces; ...

Broken in The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, reference number 2844, is chath in Hebrew, and it is transliterated as, "crushed." Crush in the Shorter Oxford English Dictionary, copyright 1972, on page 432, is classified as "to break down the power of."

At the Second Coming of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, He shall break down the power of this commanding empire: the Roman Catholic Church. We will now further explain by defining the words break down and power.

Further study shows that break down, in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 163 is "to cease to function; to cause to collapse." Collapse, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 443, is the same as, "fall apart in confused disorganization; crumble into insignificance; to suddenly lose force, effectiveness, or worth." And lastly, power, in Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1979, on page 895, is defined as "possession of control, authority, or influence over others."

Considering the veracity of this research, we can confirm that the very influential Roman Catholic Church shall cease to function as a religious organization at the return of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה. This false religion shall fall apart in confused disorganization, crumble into insignificance, and suddenly lose its force, effectiveness, and worth. More specifically, their leadership of bishops, cardinals, and the Pope himself, who is recognized as the supreme head of all Catholics, shall no longer possess control, authority and influence over its followers. This shall all happen in pieces according to Jeremiah, Chapter 50, and verse 2.

In pieces, in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 890, means the same as not unified; disorganized. Unity, the root of unified in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 1563, is "the quality of being one spirit, sentiment, purpose, etc." Disorganized in American College Dictionary, copyright 1962, on page 349, is defined as "throw into confusion or disorder."

While confusion in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 477, is defined as "lacking of certainty, orderly thought, or power to act decisively”; disorder, in the same source, on page 652, is said to mean “breach of public order; disturbance of the peace of society.”

Consequently, at the Second Coming of יהוה בן יהוה, all Catholics shall no longer be one spirit, express the same sentiment, nor have the same purpose. This will cause them to lack certainty in their false god Jesus. Hence, they shall lack orderly thought of the Christian doctrine they've been taught; thereby, unable to have the power to act decisively in terms of their faith. For these reasons, there shall be a serious breach of public order and a great disturbance of the peace of society.

The phrase in pieces from Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2, in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 890, is also synonymous to disintegrate. On page 306, disintegrate means to disperse. Disperse in Funk & Wagnall's Standard College Dictionary, copyright 1942, on page 339, means “to cause to scatter or depart in all directions; to cause to disappear.” And lastly, to disappear, in the Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2004, on page 409, means to “go out of use; become lost or extinct.”

We can now add that at the return of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, the leadership of the Roman Catholic Church, as well as its followers, shall be thrown into chaos. All who believe in the church and its false teachings shall suddenly lack certainty in their false god Jesus. In fact, they shall be so uncertain that they will not be able to think orderly or properly, so much so that they shall not have the power to act decisively. Their overwhelming dismay shall cause them to breach and disturb the peace of society with riots, protests, marches, and the like. As a result, they shall scatter and depart in all directions, even to the extent that the doctrines, dogma, and belief of Catholicism shall completely go out of use and become lost and extinct.

When the world's greatest religion—Catholicism and Christianity—comes crashing down, then shall all of the other false religions in the world. They shall come down also because they too are built on lies and deceit. This includes Islam, Buddhism, Hinduism, and any other -ism that men have imagined. All false religions shall come crumbling down like a house of cards. For when Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, returns to the earth in bodily form in the sight of all nations, peoples, languages, tongues, cultures, and religions of the world, His very presence will be proof that

He is the One and only true Son of God, יהוה. This great day shall cause all people on the earth to submit to His divine authority and fall down at His feet. He shall not share His glory with another! (Isaiah 48: 11). Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

We shall return to our foundation Scripture in Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2 to learn more about these false gods that יהוה בן יהוה shall destroy at His return. Let us read Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2 in part:

... her idols are confounded, ...

Now up to this point, we have been dealing with religion and faith. This entire Scripture is dealing with false religion, gods, and idols. We see here in our Scripture that the next word to examine is “her.” Although “her” is a pronoun, it is used here as a possessive adjective of the noun idols. Thus, “her” refers to Babylon’s (America’s) idols that shall be confounded. So who or what are these American idols?

In The Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of The Bible, reference number 6091, idols is atsab in Hebrew, and it means “an (idolatrous) image.” Idolatrous, in Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 654, is defined as “given to excessive admiration or devotion.” Image in Webster’s New World Dictionary, copyright 1988, on page 673, is classified as “the concept of a person, product, institution, held by the general public, often one deliberately created or modified by publicity, advertising and propaganda.”

A concept in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 206, is synonymous to an opinion. An opinion in Webster’s New World Dictionary, copyright 1988, on page 950, is “a belief not based on absolute certainty or positive knowledge but on what seems true, valid, or probable to one’s own mind.”

In part one of this seminar series, we explained that the Chaldeans (the inhabitants of America) shall be judged because they are like Sodom and Gomorrah—devoted to materialism and the pursuit of sensual pleasure. In addition, Babylon (the United States of America) and her inhabitants are also given to excessive admiration and devotion to persons, products, and institutions. This sentiment is held by the general public of America. Furthermore, their belief in these persons, products, and institutions is not based on absolute certainty nor positive knowledge but on what “seems” true, valid, or probable to their minds.

This is because their belief in these persons, products, and institutions has been deliberately created and modified by the rulers of America, through the use of publicity, advertising, and propaganda. So who are these persons, products, and institutions that the inhabitants of America are given to excessive admiration and devotion? We must define: person, products, and institutions to lay all of this out plainly.

Person, in the Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, reference numbers 136.25 and 28 is synonymous to "actor, comedian, and director." Now product, under reference number 482.6, is equivalent to "merchandise." Also, product in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 941, is synonymous to production, symbol. Production, in the same source, same page, is books, novels, drama, show, concert, film. While a symbol, in the same source, on page 1207, means trademark, brand; institution, in the same source, reference number 480.7-8 is denoted as, "corporation, partnership, and syndicate."

From these facts, it is becoming clear that the inhabitants of America are given to excessive admiration and devotion to Hollywood actors, comedians, directors, and the like. They excessively respect American novels; they have an excessive love for dramas; they particularly marvel at shows on television, and they devote much time, energy, and money towards attending concerts and watching films.

Not only do they admire all of these things; but, they also devote themselves to acquiring all types of merchandise, trademarks, and brand names (such as Nike, Chanel, Coach, Apple products, Beatsware, Louis Vuitton, etc.). Their excessive admiration and devotion to America's corporations, partnerships, and syndicates (like NBC, ABC, and CNN) is widely expressed throughout America.

Babylon (the United States of America) is indeed an idolatrous nation, but their belief in these celebrities, brand names, and corporations have been deliberately, intentionally, and consciously created and modified by the rulers of America through the use of publicity, advertising, and propaganda.

Let us see how publicity, advertising and propaganda have influenced the inhabitants of America. While publicity, in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 1995, on page 1091, means "extensive mention in the news media or by word of mouth"; advertising, in the Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, reference number 173.8, is categorized as, "press conference, media event, staged event, photo opportunity; sensationalism; name in bright lights," and propaganda, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 1149, is “any systematic widespread dissemination or promotion of particular ideas, practices, etc. to further one’s own cause or to damage an opposing one.”

Based on this research, it is clear how the rulers of America have influenced her inhabitants to admire and worship celebrities, brand names, and corporations deliberately, intentionally, and consciously. The rulers of America purposely make mention in the news media concerning the actions of these celebrities, brand names, and corporations to create admiration and desire in her people. They have utilized this platform from press conferences, staged events, photo opportunities, sensationalism in tabloids about these celebrities, products, and corporations.

Moreover, they even go as far as placing their names, logos, trademark, etc., in bright lights for the world to marvel, as we see in Time Square, New York City and such.

The rulers of America deliberately create these ideas in people through systematic, widespread dissemination or promotion of particular ideas (as gay rights) and practices (as same-sex marriage) to further their own cause or to damage opposing ones whose ideas are not the same. In spite of this, at the return of יהוה בן יהוה, all these celebrities, name brands, and corporations that the people hold as their gods with great admiration and devotion shall be confounded, according to Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2:

... her idols are confounded, ...

Confounded in The Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of The Bible, reference number 3001 is yabesh and it means, "confused." Confused in the Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 477, means, "to bring to ruin." Ruin, in the Funk & Wagnall's Standard College Dictionary, copyright 1963, on page 1175, is tantamount to "total destruction of value or usefulness." Also ruin, in The American Heritage Dictionary, copyright 1982, on page 1076, is equivalent to "the total loss of one's fortune, position, or honor; to reduce to poverty or bankruptcy."

All these persons, products, and institutions which are worshiped and adored by the public, shall fall into ruin. This means that those persons who are idolized and respected by the general population shall lose all of their fortune, position, and honor. Those products that are venerated by the masses shall be destroyed and no longer be valued or useful. And all those institutions that are world-renowned, esteemed, and respected, they too shall be brought down and reduced to poverty and bankruptcy.

We still have but one more false god to bring down, crush, and demolish. Therefore, let us return to our foundation Scripture in Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2, which reads in part,

... her images are broken in pieces.

Images, in The Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, reference number 1544, is gillul, and it means a "log (as round); by implication an idol." From this transliteration, we can deduce that the word image is cryptically portrayed as a log that is round; it is also an idol. We will now explain this mystery by defining the words: log, round, and idol.

Log, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 1330, etymologically, is Norwegian and is described as a "fallen tree." Fallen, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2004, on page 511, is defined as "become prostrate." In the same source, on page 1152, prostrate means "to lay flat; to stretch out; lying with the face downward in demonstration of great humility or abject submission."

And tree, in The American Heritage Dictionary, copyright 1982, on page 1291, is described as, “the cross on which Jesus was crucified.”

These definitions clearly depict the crucifix: the cross with the figure of the crucified Jesus on it. It is descriptive of the manner in which his body laid flat on the cross, his hands were stretched out on it; and how he laid on the cross with his face downward in demonstration of great humility or abject submission. Furthermore, the transliteration of this fallen tree or crucified Jesus is described as round and an idol.

What does it mean to be round? Round, in The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1052, means being all over, in all parts, throughout. In the same source, on page 532, idol is a fallacy. And a fallacy, in Cassel Concise Dictionary, copyright 1998, on page 520, is classified as “a prevalent but mistaken belief, based on unsound reasoning or incorrect information.”

We can assert, from this research that the crucifix, which is the cross with the figure of the crucified Jesus: his body lying flat, his hands stretched out, and his face in a downward demonstration of great humility or abject submission—that is known all over America, in all parts of the world and throughout the earth—is a prevalent but mistaken belief based on unsound reasoning and incorrect information. Still, it is this prevalent, mistaken belief that shall be rendered as written in Jeremiah, Chapter 50, verse 2, which reads:

... broken in pieces.

Broken in The Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, reference number 2865, is chathath, and it means "abolish." To abolish, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 4, is "to do away with wholly; annul—used chiefly of laws, customs, institutions, traditions." In The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 52, annul means to stop; put an end to.

The phrase in pieces, in the same source, on page 890, means incoherent. And incoherent, in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1966, on page 1143, is defined as, "lacking orderly continuity or relevance."

It can be concluded that at the Second Coming of יהוה בן יהוה when He shall pass His Final Judgment upon America and the world, all god-fearing people shall wholly do away with the crucifix: which is the cross of the figure of the crucified Jesus. Although this belief is prevalent, widespread, and well known all over America and the world, He shall make it clear that it is a mistaken belief based on unsound reasoning and incorrect information.

Hence, the lies and laws created by the Roman Catholic Church and Christianity, along with its false customs, institutions, traditions and the like, that have propagated this shall be stopped so much so that they shall lack orderly continuity, relevance, and subsequently be brought to an end.

יהוה בן יהוה is the true Messiah and only Christ that was crucified on the cross of Judicial Murder in U.S. courts by the American government. At His return, יהוה בן יהוה shall bring to their remembrance that instead of using their media to broadcast His good works, the rulers of America, spread lies and deception about Him.

Instead of disseminating and promoting His "righteous" teachings and practices, they chose to damage His reputation to silence His message of salvation. יהוה בן יהוה taught His people chastity. He clothed His disciplines in white linen as a symbol of holiness, as a model of excellence, for the world to follow. However, the rulers of America, instead of showcasing it as fashionable and desirable, chose to make it appear strange and cultic.

His teachings on the history of black people in America that contained wisdom for spiritual growth were published in a twisted manner to make His words appear hateful and violent. Even more, they chose not to advertise, promote, or publicize the name of יהוה as most holy, sacred, and honorable that all people should devote themselves to and admire.

They instead associated His name with the most heinous of crimes. Because they vilified Him and His good works, and dragged His holy name through the mud, He shall bring to their remembrance that He is the Son of God, יהוה. It shall be evident that no matter what they have said or done to Him or His disciples, prophecy is yet being fulfilled, and everything that יהוה בן יהוה spoke shall come to pass; thus, repaying His enemies to their face.

Be not dismayed nor discouraged, O ye righteous ones of Israel, for the day shall come when He shall return again in the darkest of night. With Him shall be the light of truth to shine throughout the world and the true message of God, יהוה: peace, morality, and love. He shall return in the sight of all the nations to manifest Himself in the magnificence of His name, in the magnitude of His majesty, and in the greatness of His glory to judge America and all who have drank of the wine of her fornication.

And with the sound of His voice shall יהוה בן יהוה cast them out from the face of the earth. He shall establish the Kingdom of Heaven, that great city, New Jerusalem, heaven on earth that shall last forever. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

I thank יהוה and His Son, יהוה בן יהוה for blessing us with His wisdom and allowing us to decode the rest of our foundation Scripture. We have much to look forward to as we patiently wait for His return. I hope and pray that יהוה continues to bless our minds with the knowledge of יהוה בן יהוה. Shalom Aleichem.
