

“The Final Battle: A Summation Of Judgment Shall Sit”

Shalom Alechiem, my Hebrew Brothers and Sisters. Welcome to this seminar entitled, The Final Battle: A Summation Of Judgment Shall Sit. Praise יהוה!

Let's begin this seminar today with the reading of Daniel 7:8.

Let us read please:

I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a mouth speaking great things.

Now in Verse 7, Daniel said that he saw in the night visions a fourth beast. He described this fourth beast as being dreadful, terrible, and exceedingly strong, with great iron teeth. This beast was so powerful that it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it. There was something that made this fourth beast stand out from all the other beasts that were before it. And this fourth beast had ten horns.

In Verse 8, of all the different descriptions of this fourth beast in Verse 7, Daniel considered the ten horns. Naturally, this signaled to us to “hunt down” who and what these ten horns symbolize.

Acquiescing to our literary experts, we viewed attentively and scrutinized carefully the definitions of considered and horn. Accepting the validity of the information gathered from these words, we concluded with absolute certainty that these ten horns symbolize power and authority. All over the world, power and authority is associated with people in high positions such as kings or leaders. The information gathered from our literary experts (the dictionaries) was supported by the Scripture, specifically Daniel 7:24, which reads in part:

And the ten horns out of this kingdom are ten kings . . .

Given the flawlessness of the Scripture, this was more than enough proof to lay to rest that these ten horns are in fact ten kings or leaders; and, obviously, they wield great power and authority.

Upon careful scrutiny of the next part of Daniel 7:8, it reads, “... and, behold, there came up among them another little horn” we found out that like Daniel, we must devote our full attention to these ten kings or rulers to learn something about their official purpose. So we did just that. Our research revealed that at a certain point, through the joint actions of men in power and authority, another “little” horn has come up among these ten horns. Based on our expert intelligence, this “little” horn is a younger king or leader, a junior, who has the same name as his father, who was a former leader.

The next phrase in Daniel 7:8 reads that ...“before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots”... The word before was defined as “in companion with; under the authority of a sovereign power to govern.” These definitions shed light on the fact that three of the first leaders were companions with someone. It couldn’t have been the “little” leader, who bears the same name as his father, because he only came on the scene after being given the authority to govern by the men who appointed him. Predicated on the correctness of our intelligence, we concluded that these three kings or leaders were companions with the leader who came “before” the “little” horn, bearing the same name as the “little” horn. But it has become the “official” charge of the “little” horn (or leader) to ...“pluck them up by the roots.”...

When we consulted our linguistic authorities for understanding, the words plucked and by the roots unveiled some startling information: These facts exposed that the “official” purpose of the “little” leader is to defeat these three leaders in war, that he might remove them from office and appoint someone to take their place. His charge is to displace them and to take them from their usual surroundings, even compelling them to leave their countries. Thus, bringing an end to their rule, and subsequently, supplanting a totally different government in their place.

Taking all of this information into consideration, we then moved to the next part in Verse 8 that comes after the colon, which reads: “. . . and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man.” Based on the definitions of the words behold and eyes, the true nature of the “little” leader has emerged as a resentful character. He is one who has a resentful dislike of people who have something that he desires. He is a man who wears a disguise, meaning that he resembles someone else. Because he has this kind of nature, he is always looking upon others with a stern disapproval. He regards everyone with mistrust and suspicion. These very points signaled to us to delve deeper into the “true” character of this “little” leader.

The next phrase in Daniel 7:8 told us something else about this “little” leader, which reads that he has “...a mouth speaking great things...” What comes out of his mouth are great things.

Given that fact, we deliberated with some of our highest-ranking dictionary authorities, which verified that “a mouth speaking great things” means that this “little” leader is one who will speak loudly and blow up words beyond their ordinary size in order to make his points of view known. He will also use every variation of a word that can be thought of to grind down a point to its most minute size--all in an effort to win others over to his side.

Given the fact that this “little” leader has the ability to speak great words, we were compelled even more to firmly establish who he is. Daniel 7:25 provided us with some additional intelligence about him, so let us read that please:

And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time.

We mentioned earlier that this “little” leader is a man in disguise, meaning he appears to be about one thing but, in actuality, he is about something else. Nevertheless, this Scripture confirms that this “little” leader shall speak great words against the most High, and even wear out the saints of the most High, יהוה.

And not only that, but he is also one who thinks to change both times and laws--thus, exemplifying his great power and authority.

There is another Scripture which describes the character of the “little” king in Daniel 8:23:

And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.

From this Scripture we were able to narrow down the exact point in time when this “little” horn came on the scene by looking at the phrase...In the latter time... The expert reference consulted revealed the conclusive fact that latter time means present time. It is talking about the present--today. Praise יהוה. This verifies that the actions of the “little” horn are taking place today.

The facts further indicate that this “little” horn’s countenance, character, and actions show a leader who is harsh and greedy, aggressive in temperament, furiously active, and determined to fulfill his “official” purpose.

Daniel 8:24 really opened our eyes to this “little” leader, euphemistically called “little” horn. It verified that his power shall be “mighty, but not by his own power:” and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practice, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. This “little” leader is a very powerful leader, but the power that he wields is not his own power. However, he shall use this power to destroy wonderfully, prosper, and practice. He shall also use this power in an effort to destroy the mighty and the holy people--you and me.

Since this is not his own power, then whose power might this be? We went to The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, Hebrew and Chaldee Dictionary, on page 55, for the facts about this. We learned that power in Hebrew is “chameleon.” The Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 275, verified that chameleon means the same thing as “serpentine.” And serpentine is “of or like a serpent, evilly cunning or subtle; devilishly sly; treacherous.”

These definitions left “little” room for the “little” leader to hide. Revelation 12:9 was our weapon of mass destruction to drag him out of the bushes. It described him as the great dragon, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceived the whole world. Now here is where we just have to let logic take over.

Considering the soundness of these facts, we logically deduced this to mean that the word power, when applied to describing the “true” character of the “little” leader, leads to a person who is evilly cunning; devilishly sly, and openly treacherous. His character is identical to that of Satan, the devil.

Given the fact that the “little” leader’s power is not his own, and being armed with the above facts, we arrived at the opinion that his power is from that old serpent called the Devil and Satan--the enemy of God, יהוה. This makes him of the Devil; but, in any given surrounding, he has the ability to disguise himself as somebody else.

Up to this point, we have described the “true” character of this “little” leader. Now, finally, it is time to put a face on him. Daniel 8:4 started this process, and it reads:

I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great.

This Scripture affirmed that the “little” leader has the face of a ram.

He is so powerful that no beast might stand before him, neither is there any that can deliver out of his hand; and, in addition, he has the privilege of doing according to his will, and he shall become very great. To help us put a face on the “little” leader, The Hebrew-Greek Key-Study Bible, Hebrew-Chaldee Dictionary, defines a ram as “a chief (politically).” A chief politically was documented to be a “person in authority in a government.” This narrowed our search down to a chief person with authority in the government. One of the world’s leading authorities, Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, lists a person in authority as a “president.”

Based on these facts, we verified that the ram in this Scripture was used metaphorically to describe a President of a country. Now remember, that this President is a junior, who has the same name as his father, who was also a President of the same country at one time. In addition, the “little” leader is a President, who was “appointed” to office, rather than being elected by the people. He is a present-day President. He is a President whose “official” purpose is to pluck up three leaders who were around when his father was President.

Furthermore, he has a feeling of discontent and ill will against these three kings because they possess something he desires. This

President is a very powerful man, but the power he wields is not his own, but rather the power he has received from Satan, the devil.

These overwhelming facts led us to no other conclusion that can be drawn except to say that this “little” President is none other than the President of the United States, George W. Bush, who is a junior, having the same name as his father, who was a former President of the United States. President George W. Bush is using his invading army to aggressively move westward, northward, and southward. Sounds like the Axis of Evil plan.

Let us continue on in our summation of Judgment Shall Sit by reading Daniel 8:25:

And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but shall be broken without hand.

The words “and through ...” made it clear that with the help or support of an administrative department of the government, President Bush is using his power, force, authority, and final say to execute his policy. The word power made it clear that this is referring to a department within the national government that deals with national security--the Department of Homeland Security.

With the support of this department, President George W. Bush is exercising his presidential powers to implement “his” policy.

While the word force alludes to persuasive power; authority implies legal power and judicial precedent, and final say suggests leaving no further chance for action; power and authority to make a final decision. Acting upon these facts, we concluded that the President is using to the fullest extent his persuasive power, fueled by the threat of “terrorism,” to implement his “policy.” In fact, he is using the legal power that has been conferred upon him to such a degree that it shall set a judicial precedent, in that he shall impose his power and authority to make a final decision, leaving no further chance for action, even superceding the Supreme Court.

The next words in Daniel 8:25 “his policy”... was narrowed down to mean that the plan or course of action that President Bush is pursuing revolves around a sly, deceptively crafty plot for evil purposes. His deceptively crafty plot is allowing him to do whatever he pleases, and to ...“cause his craft to prosper”... Following this line of thought, and tracing this course of action through the word “discretion,” we found out that President George W. Bush admitted that he is a conservative in his autobiography entitled, A Charge To Keep, copyright 1999, on page 235. He quoted in this book that he is a compassionate conservative... In fact, he said he even welcomed the label, and on this ground he would make his stand. He also said that he is a compassionate conservative, who has outlined a new vision of the proper role of the American government.

When we defined the word conservative, as it relates to “his policy,” we found out that what he actually admitted is that he is one who believes in or advocates principles associated with the Right. The right was defined as political conservatives, which lead to a political conservative in the government. Being a political conservative in the government means that he advocates the establishment of authoritarian political order by revolution or by other forceful means. Close examination of an authoritarian political order by revolution equates to favoring a concentration of power in a leader not constitutionally responsible to the people; and as such, he advocates an abrupt political overthrow or seizure of power that can be brought about from within a given system.

The truth of the matter is, President George W. Bush was not elected by the American people, he was “appointed” to office; therefore, he is not constitutionally responsible to them. By definition, his crafty plot relates concentrating power in his hands to establish an authoritarian political order through an abrupt seizure of power within the government. Could this be his new vision of the proper role of the American government?

Further examination of the word policy exposed more of President Bush's "true" character in that he is one who is practicing deception under an assumed character, and that of being an artificer. Being an artificer led us back to his beginning as described in Genesis 4:17, 18, 19, and 22:

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch:...

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 And Lamech took unto him two wives:.. and the name of the other Zillah.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubalcain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron:...

President George W. Bush, the artificer, is a descendent of Cain; and having the nature of Cain, he is, by nature, very cunning. Being cunning proves that the solemn words of President Bush are based on deceitful, unscrupulous, and manipulative vows. Therefore, under is his policy, ruthless and cunning behavior is considered appropriate to the conduct of government Within the definition of cunning from the perspective of policy, we found out too that he is one of the good old boys, which once again shows the “face” that the President really operates under. Under the definition of good old boy is the word Devil, “depicted as a man with horns.” We established that President George W. Bush is the “little” horn from Daniel 7:8. Now we run into a definition of Devil as a man with horns.

These well-documented facts show that the Devil is a man with “horns” (remember the ten horns), who are kings or men of power and authority. But more specifically, the facts are backing up the connecting kinship through descent between the Devil and the “little” horn, President George W. Bush. This is what we have been saying all along, and it backs up what we just read in Genesis 4:17-22. To further prove this point, let us turn to Acts 13:10, read:

*And said, O full of all subtlety and mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right way of the Lord,

From all the facts we have gathered, it is clear that the “little” horn, President George W. Bush, is full of all subtlety and mischief, a child of the devil, an enemy of righteousness, and who cease not to pervert the way of the Lord, יהוה--the name of the God of the Bible.

As we continue on our course in Daniel 8:25, the next phrase we decoded was ...“shall cause craft to prosper in his hand”... Shall was defined as “to express a command.” After closely examining the word command, we were able to show that President Bush made it appear that he was given a mandate by the United Nations to administer the government and affairs of a people in a backward territory. However, he betrayed the American people by camouflaging his requested mandate under the wording of making war with Iraq to seek out and destroy weapons of mass destruction. Even after the UN knew he had no real proof, they passed Resolution 1441 anyway--paving the way or leaving the door wide open for him to . . . “cause craft to prosper in his hand.”

The word cause verifies that President Bush and his friends, including Vice President Dick Chaney and his business associates, have taken possession of and are acting as the rightful owners of the oil in Iraq. From President Bush’s point of view, Iraq is a backward territory, and the mandate given him by the United Nations has allowed him to take over the government of Iraq to do whatever he wants to do with it. Having power and oil are all the weapons he needs to cause ...craft to prosper in his hand.

From the definitions of craft, our expert reference sources substantiated the fact that President George W. Bush intentionally deceived the American people through his deliberate misinterpretation of the facts by deceitful words about weapons of mass destruction in Iraq. He did this to further his own ends, as well as to keep his vow to the men of power and authority who “appointed” him to office.

To cause craft to prosper in his hand, he has betrayed the trust of the American people. And not only that, but it is costing the lives of their sons, daughters, husbands, and wives every day in order to satisfy his own ambition. Thus, he is prospering, which means that he is being profitable in that he is receiving valuable returns in the form of “quid pro quo,” which is a term readily associated with his father, former President George Herbert Walker Bush. Our research revealed that quid pro quo is from Latin origin and it means “something for something; one thing in return for another.” This directed our attention to the fact that the “little” horn, President Bush, is giving something in return for something or one thing in return for another.

The next phrase in Daniel 8:25 revealed that President Bush caused craft to prosper ...in his hand. As a consequence of his deceptive actions, President George W. Bush has received something in his “hand.” The New Strong’s Complete Dictionary of Bible Words, copyright 1996, in the Hebrew/Aramaic Dictionary on page 384, verified that hand is symbolic of “power.” This makes it clear that President Bush received power.

Subsequently, the expression quid pro quo, in relation to Daniel 8:25, translates to mean that, as a consequence of being “appointed” to office of President of the United States, President Bush is returning oil resources to the men who “appointed” him to office--thus keeping the vow he made to them.

Exercising the power of the Presidency, President Bush has caused craft to prosper in his hand.... This is indicative of and is in keeping with the “true” character of President Bush because he relies on using treachery, guile, deception, and fraud to hunt down and to get what he wants.

There is another Scripture that fits the descriptive profile of President George W. Bush. And it is described in Psalm 10:7, which says that:

His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

Confirmation: President Bush's mouth is full of cursing, deceit and fraud The New Strong's Complete Dictionary of Bible Words, copyright 1996, in the Hebrew/Aramaic Dictionary, on pages 486-487, described mouth as "appointment." The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1984, on page 66, affirms that the word appointment, means "the act of appointing to an office."

Therefore, the word mouth confirms all that we have been saying about President Bush. To sum it up: all that President George W. Bush is doing in office is full of cursing, deceit, and fraud. And under his administration, there is nothing but mischief and vanity.

President George W. Bush's "appointment" to office is tied again to his doing something in order to get something: quid pro quo. Factoring in the soundness of all the facts presented, we confirmed that President Bush is still working under the vow or contract he made with the men of power and authority who appointed him to office. And in return for their appointing him to office, he is in return giving them access to the oil resources in Iraq. Revelation 13:6 revealed one of his vows, and it reads . . .

And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against יהוה, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.

In addition to fulfilling his vow to give the men of power and authority who appointed him to office oil, President Bush also made a vow to open his mouth in blasphemy (or to speak contemptuously or with abuse) against יהוה, to blaspheme his name.

And that is not all, but the next phrase in Daniel 8:25 says ... and he shall magnify himself in his heart.... It is inevitable that the “little” horn, President George Bush, will magnify himself in his own heart, meaning that he shall “extol” himself, which translates to paying honor and giving glory, worship, and praise to himself. He will “deify” himself, which equates to him making an idol of himself. An idol is by definition “a false god.”

In his heart... is another way of saying “in ‘his’ mind.” A picture has emerged, from this investigation of the facts, which shows President Bush is in fact magnifying himself. He has set himself up as one to be honored and worshiped for his aggressive tactics and bold approach to “terrorism,” which, in “his” mind, is making him--a god.

In addition to these things, he uses every photo opportunity to tantalize the public into idolizing his actions. He even allowed himself to be portrayed as “Jesus,” who some people believe is God, in the GQ Magazine, September, 2003 issue.

But, in spite of all of this, his wickedness will ultimately come to naught, because the judgment of יהוה shall stand, according to Isaiah 28:17:

Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

יהוה shall lay to the line all of President Bush’s lies, and He shall also sweep away all his refuge of lies. To expose his lies, יהוה shall even overflow the place where President Bush is hiding his lies. And to leave no stones unturned, He shall ultimately expose the very department that covers, shelters, or protects the lies of the President: for the sake of example, the CIA.

In order to keep another part of the vow he made upon being “appointed” to the office of President of the United States, President George W. Bush shall also fulfill the next part of our foundation Scripture, Daniel 8:25, which shows that ... “he shall also stand up against the Prince Of princes”....

The Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 744, under reference number 843.15, validated that to stand up is to “unmask oneself, unveil oneself; make no secret of (who he really is) confront; come face to face.” Now, Daniel 8:25, has brought us to the point where President Bush will unmask himself, and unveil who he really is. More specifically, he will make no secret about who he really is and how he “really” feels about יהוה בן יהוה. He has been standing in readiness for the time when he shall come face to face with the Prince of princes, יהוה בן יהוה. יהוה brought us to this point so that not only can we see plainly who he is, but also so the world can see who he is as well.

To unmask himself is to expose his true nature or identity. He will reveal something about himself that has been hidden or kept secret.” In other words, he will own up to what we have been saying all along. He will expose his secret, true nature and “real” identity. Through our research, one secret was revealed, which clearly showed the true “face” of George W. Bush, in that he is a descendant of Cain, the son of Satan. President Bush standing up against יהוה בן יהוה, ...“the Prince of princes”... has set the stage for Satan, though his descendant, to engage in his final battle with יהוה.

Our reference experts set the stage for this battle. This battle shall come down to this: In a hostile and defiant manner, President Bush will challenge יהוה בן יהוה to a face-to-face confrontation. To bring about this final battle, the “little horn,” President George W. Bush, is going to use all the power of his executive office to publicly condemn יהוה בן יהוה, who is יהוה in the flesh as the Son. He will do this by officially expressing his disapproval of יהוה בן יהוה.

And not only is he going to use the executive office of the government to do this, but research shows that he shall also get an official expression of disapproval that will be passed by the legislature. To put it plainly, in his desperate attempt to win this battle, President Bush shall bring in the Congress to back up his condemnation of יהוה בן יהוה. The more politically correct term is a proclamation of disapproval. This proclamation will be a formal public announcement which will show his intense, passionate, and extreme hate for and hostility toward God, יהוה, and His Son, בן יהוה יהוה.

The signs of the times point to this being the battle about recognizing that the only true name of God is יהוה, and that His Son is יהוה בן יהוה. The name, יהוה, was kept hidden and secret until the coming of יהוה בן יהוה, proclaiming the name to the world. By coming in His Father's name, יהוה בן יהוה challenged the world by saying יהוה is not a secret name any more. Now, the name יהוה is being spoken and seen more and more throughout this land and the world. This never happened before the coming of יהוה בן יהוה. Satan and his false image, "Jesus," are losing ground, and we know he is not going to give up without a fight! But this is one battle he will not win. Praise יהוה!

In this final battle, President Bush will bring out his most powerful weapons of mass destruction. Since he will declare an open act of war against יהוה בן יהוה with great hostility, we had to find out the specific weapons of mass destruction he shall use.

To do this, we went to the experts. While in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 1996, on page 653, hostility means “open acts of war”; war on page 1504 is “struggle.” The Random House Webster’s Unabridged Dictionary, Computer Software, copyright 1998, confirmed that war is also defined as “a war of words.” These subsequent facts expose that this final battle will be a war of words--weapons of mass destruction.

Let’s read Revelation 12:7:

And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

President Bush will launch a strong and powerful force of hostile words against יהוה בן יהוה. This final battle will be a word war between good--whose champion is יהוה בן יהוה, symbolized as Michael in this Scripture--and evil, symbolized by the dragon, whose representative is President George W. Bush.

This final battle will be a lot different from the first battle--the judicial murder trials. Not only will the accuser, the representative of Satan, President George W. Bush, speak freely, but יהוה בן יהוה, the Son of Almighty God, יהוה, for the first time in this type of forum, shall also speak freely as well. Praise יהוה!

This is all about the fulfillment of Daniel 8:25, in which President George W. Bush, the accuser, ... shall stand up against the Prince of princes, יהוה בן יהוה in order to fulfill his sworn agreement with those who appointed him to office. He must fulfill not only his charge but even more importantly, he must fulfill the Scriptures, in that he was “divinely” chosen to be the one to blaspheme the name יהוה.

Given the brevity of this battle and knowing that he has but a short time, President Bush shall summon or call up all three branches of the government--executive, legislative and judicial to fight this battle. Our research shows that President Bush will resort to improper and illegal use of these branches of government with the intention of treating יהוה בן יהוה irreverently,...but he shall be broken without hand, which brings us to the last part of Daniel 8:25.

In decoding this clause, shall was described as to be legally bound to a sum of money paid to settle a matter, especially a sum required to be paid as punishment for an offense. Broken translated as “bankrupt,” which was described as the property of a bankrupt that is divided among the creditors; and also as insolvent; and something declared in law unable to pay debts. Broken was defined as being equivalent to destroy, and destroy is to put out of existence; to kill.

So ...but he shall be broken equates to the fact that, the President and his co-accusers, more formally known as the United States Government, will be held liable to fines for killing the character of יהוה בן יהוה, hanging Him on the cross by judicial murder in the U.S. courts and for continued persecution by the placement of onerous restrictions on Him during His parole. In addition, the President and the United States Government are liable for a sum of money to be paid as punishment for these offenses.

But there is a twist, when the fine becomes due, bankruptcy will be declared by law. In other words, the President and the U. S. Government will be declared broke or insolvent, which means, by law, all assets owned by the and the President are to be divided among the persons to whom the money is owed, who are בן יהוה יהוה and the members of the Nation of יהוה. This settlement will be such that it will put the government out of existence and cause death to the economy. All of this shall be done without hand.

Without hand translates to being absent of assistance or aide; omission of active participation or cooperation of anyone. As unbelievable as this may seem, the Scripture tells us יהוה alone shall cause all of these things to happen, and He shall do it absent of any assistance or aide; and omission of any active participation or cooperation of any outside sources, forces, or individuals. יהוה alone, all by Himself, shall win this final battle. Almighty God, יהוה, is the only person in the Universe who has the power to fulfill this prophecy.

And historically, יהוה has shown He alone can do all of the things we have mentioned. From the Hebrew-Greek Key Study Bible, KJV, copyright 1984, on page 1088, the reference Scripture to Daniel 8:25 for the phrase ...broken without hand is Job 34:20:

In a moment they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

Continuing in the same Bible, a reference Scripture to Job 34:20 is Exodus 12: 29:

And it came to pass, that at midnight the Lord, יהוה, smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh that sat on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.

These Scriptures make it absolutely clear that יהוה performed this mighty work over 4,000 years ago in Egypt, absent of the assistance or aide of anyone or active participation by anyone.

In this modern-day Egypt, יהוה told the Pharaoh, former President, George Herbert Walker Bush, who imprisoned His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, to “let my Son go that He may serve Me, and if you refuse....” Turn to Exodus 4:23:

And I say unto thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me: and if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will slay thy son, even thy firstborn.

Former President, George Herbert Walker Bush, refused to let יהוה בן יהוה go, and now his son holds the same office as Pharaoh, and he, too, is refusing to let יהוה בן יהוה and the children of Israel go that we may serve יהוה! יהוה is not a Man that He should lie; therefore, He shall keep His word: to slay the firstborn of the land without hand.

In spite of launching a strong word war attack against יהוה בן יהוה and wearing out the saints of the most High (Daniel 7:25), judgment shall sit, and יהוה shall take away President Bush’s dominion, to consume, and to destroy it unto the end (Daniel 7:26). For the judgment of יהוה shall sit! Praise יהוה!

I thank and praise יהוה for sending His magnificent Son, בן יהוה who gave us the keys to study. For this I give Him all praise and honor.
