

A Message For Law Keepers: Preparing For Rulership, Part 6

Shalom and welcome to our Twenty-Third Annual Feast of Tabernacles in the solar year 6006, where we are gathered in the place, Montreal, Quebec, Canada where יהוה has chosen to place His most Sacred and Consecrated name. First, I would like to give all praises, honor, and glory to our Great, Good, and Terrible Black God, יהוה, and to His most Luminous, Incandescent, Illustrious, Effulgent, and Resplendent Son, יהוה בן יהוה, The Great Light. Blessed be יהוה בן יהוה who comes in the name יהוה. Praise יהוה!

I am blessed to be here in this day and time to witness the prophetic events of the Bible being revealed and to be able to see and understand the mysteries of this Great Book that are being unfolded. As a result of this blessing, I am compelled to bear witness to you today that יהוה is God, not just any God, but the True and Living God! And יהוה has sent His most precious Gift, His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, our Savior, our Redeemer, our Messiah, our Deliverer, and our Reformer here among us in the hells and wilderness of America to resurrect us from our mental graves of ignorance and from our condition of being spiritually blind, deaf, dumb, lame, and just plain old dead.

I can bear witness to you of these facts and miracles because He has performed these miraculous works on me and for me personally. יהוה בן יהוה did not just do these wonderful things for me, but for all of you who are here to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles and for all of you who are just coming into the knowledge of the truth as brought to us by יהוה בן יהוה, then I am more than sure that you, too, have witnessed the great works of יהוה בן יהוה and have great experiences of what He has performed for you in your personal life. Do I have any witnesses? Then we should all be ecstatic and full of joy and praises to יהוה בן יהוה for all that He has done and is doing for us and for laying down His life in the fulfillment of prophecy that we may live. Praise יהוה! Let us never forget that the only reason each and every one of us is here or just learning is because of One Man, and His name is יהוה בן יהוה. Praise יהוה

It is my obligation and duty, yet it is a privilege and an honor to be able to stand before you to share with you the Words of יהוה, the wisdom and understanding obtained from studying (2 Timothy 2:15) and performing the Diving Ten-Step Study Method of יהוה בן יהוה as it relates to A Message For Law Keepers: Preparing For Rulership. In Part 5 of this series we analyzed Revelation 12:4, which reads, “And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.”

We examined the phrase, “and the dragon stood before the woman” and found out that this signified that the dragon has devised plots against יהוה בן יהוה, who is symbolized as the Woman, with the intent of arresting and incarcerating Him again as an attempt to silence יהוה בן יהוה, cause the Nation of יהוה to come to a halt or standstill, and ultimately destroy the Nation of יהוה. The colon (:) in Revelation 12:4 directed us to give attention to the first part of the Scripture, “And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven.”

We gained an understanding that the third part of the stars of heaven represents Israel, who is also symbolized as the Comforter in John 14:26, who are destined to take the place of יהוה בן יהוה with the apostles who are ambassadors of the Gospel and commissioners of יהוה בן יהוה and have been given the authority to act for, on behalf of, or in place of יהוה בן יהוה to lead the Nation of יהוה into a deeper knowledge of the gospel of truth, and to give us the divine strength needed to enable us to undergo trials and persecutions on behalf of the Kingdom of יהוה. This would become a reality when we exercise 2 Timothy 2:15 and perform the Divine Ten-Step Study Method of יהוה בן יהוה. This was one of the reasons why the dragon shall use his tail to draw the third part of the stars of heaven.

In today's seminar, A Message For Law Keepers: Preparing For Rulership, Part 6, we will continue to explore the mysteries of Revelation Chapter 12 as we seek to gain an understanding of these prophecies relative to our rulership with יהוה בן יהוה in the Theocratic Government of יהוה. Praise יהוה! Let us begin by opening our Bibles and turning to Revelation 12:5, which reads...

And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, יהוה, and to his throne.

In accord with Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Fifth Edition, copyright 1936, on page 915, she is defined as: "the woman or female being previously designated." The woman that has been previously designated is aforementioned in Revelation 12:1, and is described as a woman clothed with the sun. This woman was previously identified in Parts 4 and 5 of this series as representing יהוה בן יהוה because He would be fulfilling the spiritual role of a physical woman giving birth to a child. The phrase brought forth is found in The New Strong's Complete Dictionary of Bible Words, copyright 1996, page 712, reference #5088, the Greek word tikto, and it means "to produce (from seed, as a mother, a plant, the earth, etc.)." Turn to Matthew 12:33, which reads...

Either make the tree good, and his fruit good;
or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt:
for the tree is known by his fruit.

This Scripture shows that the phrase brought forth with respect to the seed from a mother or the seed from a plant is equivalent to the fruit of a tree being produced. In this case, the child who is in the process of being brought forth will have characteristics identical to the Woman and will be recognized as the fruit of the labor of the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה), for a tree is known by His fruit. Praise יהוה! Let us continue with brought forth, which means to produce. Cited in Roget's International Thesaurus, Fourth Edition, copyright 1977, page 100, reference #167.9, produce is synonymous to “realize, bring to fruition or into being; mass-produce.” Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, page 731, defines mass-produce as: “to produce in quantity, usually by machinery. On page 714, machinery is described as: “the means or system by which something is kept in action or a desired result is obtained.” And last, but not least, mass on page 731 means “bulk; massive quality or effect; the principal part or main body.”

From this sequence of definitions, it can be concluded that at the appointed time, the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה) will mass-produce the principal part or main body of components for this child who is to rule all nations with a rod of iron. This mass-production will be the result of the machinery used by the Nation of יהוה, which is the means or system by which something is kept in action or a desired result is obtained. The means or system which keeps the Nation of יהוה in action is through the internet at our website, www.yahwehbenyahweh.com, and through the promotion of our television program The Universe of יהוה, which can be viewed on local and cable TV, via satellite network, and on the internet at our website. This means or system is the gateway or educational access for the world to learn of every aspect of the Nation of יהוה, and the desired result will be obtained wherein the Earth will be full of the knowledge of יהוה. Turn to Isaiah 11:9, which reads...

They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, יהוה, as the waters cover the sea.

Although quantity is a factor in this mass-production, massive quality is the main objective for the principal part of this child, which is the head. Praise יהוה! Revelation 12:5 says, “And she brought forth a man child.” Referenced in Roget’s International Thesaurus, Fourth Edition, copyright 1977, page 71, reference #125.5, manchild is equivalent to “master.” The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, page 711, lists some of the synonyms for master as “potentate, governor, president, Chief Executive, commander in chief, leader, head, chief of staff, employer, boss, chairman, director, administrator, executive, manager, supervisor, superintendent, owner, teacher, guide, and spiritual leader.”

This specifies the quality or group of people that are in the process of being mass-produced or being brought forth by the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה) whose purpose is to rule all nations with a rod of iron. The synonyms given for man child illustrates that this is not a physical child from birth to age seventeen who needs a guide and an overseer, but they are the leaders of social organizations, the executives and bosses of corporations, they are the supervisors and managers of businesses, they are the owners and bosses of industries, they are the administrators and directors of financial institutions, they are chairmen and presidents of political and educational organizations, and they are the teachers and spiritual leaders of religious organizations and institutions.

This man child symbolizes the godhead, people who already possess the skills and abilities of leadership and rulership, people who are influential in their organizations and it doesn't just stop there, but they possess the capacity to influence the masses of society. However, the reason that this man child must be brought forth by the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה), being produced from the seed of the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה), is due to the fact that this man child is missing the wisdom, knowledge, understanding, commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה, which will qualify them for righteous rulership: not in the world, but under יהוה בן יהוה in the Theocratic Government of יהוה. Praise יהוה!

Let us continue analyzing Revelation 12:5, "And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron": Man child in this Scripture appear as two separate words--man and child. On the authority of Roget's International Thesaurus, Fourth Edition, copyright 1977, man is the same as mankind and person. On page 319, reference #417.1, mankind is synonymous with "Adam, Adam's seed or offspring." On the same page, reference #417.3, person is equivalent to "Adamite; living soul." This can be verified in Genesis 1:27, which reads...

So God, יהוה, created man in his own image, in the image of God, יהוה, created he him; male and female created he them.

Turn to Genesis 2:7, which reads...

And the Lord God, יהוה, formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

And let us turn to Genesis 5:2, which reads...

Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

Thus, it is clear that this “man” child is the seed and offspring of Adam, male and female from the beginning, made in the image of יהוה. It is apparent that we should not expect for this “man” child to be of one color from the so-called Black man of America, but from all races, creeds, and colors, for every person in existence today are descendants of Adam from the beginning. Let us turn to 1 Corinthians 15:45, which reads...

And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

In conformity with The Hebrew-Greek Key Study Bible, copyright 1984 and 1991, in the Lexical Aids to the New Testament, page 1720, reference #2227, quicken is “used primarily in the NT of raising the dead to life.” Praise יהוה for an understanding. What makes the birth of this man child miraculous and special and also worthy of note from the dragon whose main objective is to stand before the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה) to devour this child is the fact that this man child who will be brought forth and mass-produced in large quantities and possessing qualities of masters will be raised from the dead (mentally and spiritually) to life in יהוה בן יהוה. And the dragon knows this, but can not prevent it from occurring! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

Now, let us proceed with the first part of Revelation 12:5, “And she brought forth a man child.” As stated by The New Strong’s Complete Dictionary of Bible Words, copyright 1996, page 711, reference #5043, the Greek word for child is teknon, “from the base #5098, meaning a child (as produced); daughter, son.” Let us turn to 2 Corinthians 6:18, which reads...

And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord, יהוה, Almighty.

This man child, the seed and offspring of Adam, who are also the sons and daughters of יהוה בן יהוה (the Woman), the godhead, will be brought forth and mass-produced by יהוה בן יהוה to rule all nations with a rod of iron. This Scripture is a thorn in the dragon’s side, for it signifies the end of his evil, wicked, and deceitful rulership.

Let us proceed by deciphering the next section of Revelation 12:5, which says, “who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron.” This portion of the Scripture is preceded by a comma (,). Consistent with Webster’s Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, page 264, comma is described as “a punctuation mark, used esp. as a mark of separation within the sentence; pause, interval.” Interval on page 634 is defined as “a space of time between events or states.” The comma (,) in this Scripture denotes that after the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה) brings forth, produces, raises this man child or group of masters from a mentally and spiritually dead state to life, there will be a pause or a space of time between this event and the man child ruling all nations with a rod of iron. Praise יהוה! As we continue, we will obtain an understanding of why that comma or interval was necessary.

But first, let us define the word “was” in the sentence “who was to rule all nations.” Noted in Thayer’s Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 396, reference #3195, mello, the Greek word for was means “of those things which will come to pass (or which one will do or suffer) by fixed necessity or by divine appointment.”

Referenced in Webster’s Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, page 468, fixed is defined as “firmly set in the mind.”

Despite the dragon and this wicked government placing יהוה בן יהוה on parole with the onerous restrictions and conditions of disallowing communication in any form with His disciples, followers, or the “Black Hebrew” group, and despite the dragon’s intentions and plots of re-arresting יהוה בן יהוה, this Scripture in its entirety is one of those things which will come to pass. This man child who was to rule is established by divine appointment and it is firmly set in the minds of those who are to fulfill this position regardless of what suffering or hardships may be associated with this appointment.

The next word in this Scripture to be defined is rule. At first glance, one may be led to believe that the man child to rule all nations with the rod of iron was symbolic of Judah, you and me, along with the rest of the so-called Black man of America. However, 1 Chronicles 28:4 and 1 Chronicles 5:2 say otherwise. Let us turn and read both of those Scriptures. First Chronicles 28:4 reads in part, and it reads...

Howbeit the Lord God, יהוה, of Israel chose me before all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler;

Stop right there. And now let us turn to 1 Chronicles 5:2 and read it in part, and it reads...

For Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler;

Stop right there. Both Scriptures in 1 Chronicles place no restrictions or limitations on Judah's rulership; yet in Revelation 12:5, it specifically states that the man child would rule all nations.

According to The New Strong's Complete Dictionary of Bible Words, copyright 1996, page 684, reference #4165, the Greek word for rule is poimaino (poy-mah'-ee-no) from 4166; meaning "to tend as a shepherd of (figuratively, supervisor)." Cited in Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 527, reference #4165, is described as "to keep sheep; to nourish; to supply the requisites for the soul's needs." According to The Random House College Dictionary, Revised Edition, copyright 1984, page 1122, requisite means, "required or necessary for a particular purpose, position, etc.; indispensable." And on page 678, indispensable is defined as "absolutely necessary or essential."

These facts clearly indicate that the job description of the man child would be to rule all nations, supervising and tending sheep as a shepherd and supplying them with what is absolutely necessary and essential for their soul's needs. Now for those of you who don't know what sheep represent, let us turn to Ezekiel 34:11-12, and 31, and it reads...

For thus saith the Lord God, יהוה; Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out.

As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered;

Stop right there. Verse 31, which reads...

And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord God, יהוה.

These Scriptures substantiate that sheep are men. Praise יהוה! Now just what type of men are sheep? In conformity with Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, page 1084, sheep is described as "a timid docile person; esp. one easily influenced or led." Timid on page 1236 means "lacking in courage or self-confidence." Docile on page 371 means, "easily taught; easily led or managed." This indicates that the sheep that need a supervisor, guide, overseer, or shepherd, and also are in need of nourishing, are a people who lack courage, self-confidence, are easily led or managed.

Revelation 12:5 denotes that the man child will rule all nations, which parallels with a shepherd supervising or tending sheep. It can be concluded that the sheep are symbolic of "all nations" who are considered as minorities (lacking courage or self-confidence) being third-world people and who have been easily miseducated, misled, misdirected, misinformed and taught lies and deceptions by the dragon and his angels. Let us turn to Revelation 12:9, which reads...

And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

Let us also read Revelation 20:2-3, which reads...

And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more,

Stop right there. The fact that it says, “that he, the dragon, should deceive the nations no more illustrates that the nations were deceived and are still deceived. What is it that is absolutely essential and indispensable to the nations or sheep? Let us turn to Matthew 4:4 and read...

But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God, יהוה.

Next, turn to John 6:63, which reads...

It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

In order for the earth to be full of the knowledge of יהוה, the inhabitants of the earth must be taught the principles of יהוה as taught by יהוה בן יהוה. They must be taught the commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה. The earth must be taught the truth which will set them free according to John 8:32. Since this responsibility and divine appointment is bestowed upon the man child, then it would be essential for the man child to already possess this knowledge. This is why the comma (,) preceded the phrase “who was to rule all nations.” The pause, interval or space of time between the period that the man child is brought forth and the ruling of all nations represents the man child’s indoctrination, inoculation, and inculcation of the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding of יהוה בן יהוה. How else will this man child be able to nourish and teach the sheep without first possessing this knowledge for himself? Praise יהוה!

Let's find out who the nations are that are to be ruled with a rod of iron in Revelation 12:5. Expressed in Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 168, reference #1484, nations is defined as "in the Old Testament, foreign nations not worshipping the true God, יהוה יהוה בן; pagans, Gentiles." Let us turn to 1 Corinthians 8:5-6, which reads...

For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)

But to us there is but one God, יהוה, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord, יהוה בן יהוה, by whom are all things, and we by him.

Since there is only one true God, then how did all of these false gods and lords come about? Let us turn to 2 Kings 17:29, which reads...

Howbeit every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

Therefore, all foreign nations who do not worship the true God, יהוה, including, all Gentiles and pagans, need to be deprogrammed and educated or ruled (supervised and nourished) by the knowledge of יהוה בן יהוה. Let us turn to John 10:16, which reads...

And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

The nations to be ruled in Revelation 12:5 are equivalent to the other sheep of יהוה בן יהוה, which are not presently in His fold, but will ultimately become a part of His one fold. When יהוה בן יהוה initially came to Miami, Florida in 1979, He came to gather and resurrect the lost sheep of the house of Israel, the so-called Black man of America, first (Matthew 10:5-6) and, then, afterwards, He would take on the task of reuniting the other nations. Praise יהוה!

Now to complete the inquiry into the last portion of Revelation 12:5 prior to the colon (:), which says, “rule all nations with a rod of iron”: We have already obtained an understanding of who the man child represents, how the man child is brought forth, what the nations signify, and what it means for the man child to rule. What will the man child rule all nations with? A rod of iron. As stated by Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 561, reference #4474, under the Greek word for rod, it states, "with a rod of iron, indicates the severest, most rigorous rule." In accord with Riverside Webster's II New College Dictionary, copyright 1995, on page 955, rigorous is described as "extremely accurate: precise." On page 1012, severe, the root word of severest is defined as "extremely plain in style; extremely intense."

Since the nations made gods of their own, of wood and stone, and worshipped them; and because the nations have been deceived and miseducated by the dragon, it is going to take a people who are extremely accurate and precise in their application of the Divine Ten-Step Study Method of יהוה בן יהוה to re-educate them. It will take a group of people who are extremely intense in their mental application (2 Timothy 2:15, study) of the principles of יהוה בן יהוה and who have the ability to be extremely plain in their style of writing and interpretation of the Words of יהוה בן יהוה that will be able to cause the nations to fall in sync with the preordained plan of יהוה בן יהוה.

In addition to that definition for the phrase “rod of iron,” we can obtain further knowledge by defining the words rod and iron separately. On the authority of The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1047, rod is synonymous to sovereignty and supreme power. Iron on page 603 is equivalent to unbending, unyielding, and firm. This establishes that the man child will exercise the sovereignty and supreme power given to them by יהוה בן יהוה to rule the nations in righteousness and when it comes to executing the laws of יהוה they will demonstrate that their minds are firm, unbending and unyielding to any form of compromise, and the laws of man will no longer be of any effect. Praise יהוה!

Now to conclude with Revelation 12:5 by probing into the very last part of the Scripture which says, “and her child was caught up unto God, יהוה, and to his throne.” What could this possibly mean? Is the man child going to be caught up in the rapture and taken up from the earth to the throne of יהוה in heaven? Well, to obtain an accurate understanding of this passage, we will examine the phrase “caught up” and the words unto and throne.

On the authority of Thayer’s Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 74, reference #726, the Greek word for the phrase caught up is harpazo, and it means “claim for oneself eagerly; used of divine power transferring a person marvelously and swiftly from one place to another.” This denotes the process and specific details of how the man child is brought forth and part of the preparation phase for ruling all nations with a rod of iron.

However, although this statement is situated at the end of the Scripture, it should have been placed after the first punctuation mark. Thus, it should have been written as such, “And she brought forth a man child, and her child was caught up unto God, יהוה, and to his throne.” This would have shown the correct order that the man child would take prior to fulfilling the responsibility of ruling all nations. The man child, also known as masters who are hidden throughout America within all races, creeds, and colors, will claim the knowledge of יהוה for themselves eagerly. It will be a joy and rejoicing to their hearts and souls (Jeremiah 15:16) to finally find the truth that they have been searching for all of their lives. Once they begin to research and study the knowledge of יהוה displayed in the books written by יהוה בן יהוה and on our website, they will no longer want to give their abilities and skills to the world, but they will immediately become associated and connected to the Nation of יהוה. This action will be by the divine power of יהוה בן יהוה transferring the man child marvelously and swiftly from the wickedness of the American mind-set to the Nation of יהוה. Let us turn to Isaiah 49:24-25, which reads...

Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered?

But thus saith the LORD, יהוה, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered:

Let us not forget that in Revelation 12:4 the dragon stood before the Woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. This substantiates that the dragon is not very happy about the man child, those whom he has deceived and manipulated by the system of America. He is determined to attempt to prevent the inevitable from occurring: the godhead joining with יהוה בן יהוה to assist with the building of the Kingdom of יהוה. Let us proceed with our analysis of “and her child was caught up unto God, יהוה, and to His throne. In conformity with Thayer’s Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 541, reference #4314, the Greek word for unto is pros, and it is defined as “to come to one; into the house of; after verbs of moving, leading, sending, drawing, bringing, directing.”

Let us validate these definitions with a Scripture. Turn to Isaiah 2:3, and it reads...

And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, יהוה, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the Lord, יהוה from Jerusalem.

The man child will not be coming alone, but will be leading, bringing, directing and drawing all who are associated with them in their respective fields, businesses, and households to the house of יהוה, to the internet at www.yahwehbenyahweh.com, to our three appointed feasts, and to the PEES Foundation. This is where they will continue their education and growth process to prepare to rule all nations. Now not only was this child caught up unto יהוה, but also to His throne. According to Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, page 292, the Greek word for throne is thronos and is defined as "to the Messiah, the partner and assistant in the divine administration; hence the divine power belonging to Christ, יהוה בן יהוה.

That just about sums it up. Revelation 12:5 says, and her child was caught up unto יהוה and to His throne. This indicates that the man child will, by divine power, be transferred from the gods of this world and the American way of life marvelously and swiftly to the knowledge of יהוה to the Messiah, יהוה בן יהוה, the partner and assistant in the divine administration of the Theocratic Government of יהוה. This divine power belongs to יהוה בן יהוה and is His to give at will.

Turn to John 1:12 and it reads...

But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, יהוה, even to them that believe on his name;

Let us also turn to Romans 8:16-17, which reads...

The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God, יהוה:

And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, יהוה, and joint-heirs with Christ, יהוה בן יהוה; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.

What is it that makes this man child worthy to rule all nations with a rod of iron in the Theocratic Government of יהוה, of which יהוה בן יהוה is the Head? As stated by The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, Fourth Edition, copyright 2000, in the Appendix I of Indo-European Roots, for the word throne, the root is dher- “from Greek thronos (support); from Sanskrit dharma, statute, law (that which is established firmly).

After the man child is brought forth and raised from death to life in the Kingdom of יהוה, the man child is caught up unto יהוה and to His throne which also represents the man child claiming the commandments, judgments, laws, and statutes of יהוה for themselves eagerly, which will give them the necessary support and cause them to be firmly established as children of יהוה. This is the preparation necessary for the fulfillment of the man child ruling all nations with a rod of iron in the Theocratic Government of יהוה, under the direction of יהוה בן יהוה or whomsoever He transfers that power to. Let us turn to Revelation 12:6 and it reads...

And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, יהוה, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.

This Scripture parallels to Verse 14 and the time frame given was a thousand two hundred and threescore days, or forty-two months, or 3 ½ years. We are not going to go into specific details in this seminar, but it should be noted that the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה) is not physically present during the time the man child will be brought forth. We must remember that בן יהוה יהוה is completing the last third or last six years of His sentence on parole with onerous restrictions disallowing Him to communicate or associate with His disciples, followers, or the Black Hebrew group directly or indirectly, by phone, internet, or in person. However, יהוה בן יהוה has already established His plan for the fulfillment of all that must be done. The disciples of יהוה בן יהוה in the Nation of יהוה through the application of the Divine Ten-Step Study Method of בן יהוה יהוה will ensure that the work of יהוה בן יהוה is performed to perfection. Praise יהוה!

Let us continue with the next verse, Revelation 12:7, and it reads...

And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, Referenced in The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, page 1333, a few of the synonyms for war are “belie, annul, annihilate, and enmity.” In accord with Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, Fifth Edition, copyright 1936, page 96, for the word belie, “the etymology says to [see lie],” and it is defined as “to tell lies about; also prove to be false.” Revelation 12:9 lets us know that the nature of the Dragon, the Devil, is to deceive; the Devil deceived the whole world, and it is in his job description to seek to prove that יהוה בן יהוה is not the Messiah and that we are not the children of יהוה, chosen to rule the world forever.

On page 43, annul means “to annihilate,” and on the same page, annihilate means “to reduce to nothing; to cease to exist; to exterminate.” After the incarceration of our Savior and Redeemer, יהוה בן יהוה, the Devil gave our Nation, the Nation of יהוה, six months to exist. They have done just about everything in their power to destroy our Father, יהוה בן יהוה, and our Nation physically and spiritually. However, they have failed and will continue to fail. Because from November 1990 until this month, October 2003 it has been almost thirteen years and we are still in existence, standing firm and keeping the laws of יהוה. And to the Devil's detriment, we shall continue to exist. Praise יהוה! This is one of the reasons why the Devil is angry and why there is an ongoing war in heaven right now.

The last synonym for the word war was enmity. On page 331, of this same Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Fifth Edition, copyright 1936, the etymology of the word enmity is [enemy] and is defined as "ill will on one side or both; hatred." Now let's read Revelation 12:17 to see who this war would be between. Revelation 12:17, and it reads...

And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, יהוה, and have the testimony of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה.

Although in this Scripture the Dragon was wroth or angry with the Woman, יהוה בן יהוה, the Dragon does not dare to make war with יהוה בן יהוה, but with the remnant of His seed, specifically those that keep the commandments of יהוה and those who have the testimony of יהוה בן יהוה.

Now, the reference Scripture for Revelation 12:17 is Genesis 3:15. Let us turn to Genesis 3:15, which reads...

And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.

To understand who יהוה was talking to, let's read Verse 14, and it reads...

And the Lord God, יהוה, said unto the serpent,

Stop right there. In Genesis, Chapter 3, verses 14-19, יהוה was handing out and distributing punishments for the breaking of the law by Adam, the woman, and the serpent in the garden. The Serpent received his punishment in Verses 14-15; the woman received her punishment in Verse 16; and Adam received his punishment in Verses 17-19. Analyzing Verse 15, I will put enmity between thee and the woman and between thy seed and her seed... One of the reference

Scriptures for “thy seed” is John 8:44, let’s turn to that Scripture, and it read...

Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

So, thy seed appears to be the Devil’s seed who is also known as the Serpent. Some of the reference Scriptures for “her seed” is Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 1:23. Let’s read Isaiah 7:14, and it reads...

Therefore the Lord, יהוה, himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

This Scripture is speaking of יהוה בן יהוה. Genesis 3:15 is quite cryptic. This woman in Verse 15 is not to be confused with the woman in the Garden who was beguiled by the Serpent and received punishment from יהוה in Verse 16, but it should be crystal clear that this is the same woman being spoken of in Revelation Chapter 12, who is only a symbol and representation of יהוה בן יהוה. More proof of this reality comes from the last part of Genesis 3:15... it shall bruise thy head and thou shalt bruise his heel. The last two reference Scriptures for Verse 15 under letter [c] in The Hebrew-Greek Key Study Bible, copyright 1984 and 1991 are Revelation 12:7 and 12:17. That takes us right back to our original Scripture. Let's turn and read Revelation 12:7 again and it reads...

And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

And as we read in Verse 17, this war in heaven or enmity is between the Dragon and perpetrated against the seed of the Woman (יהוה בן יהוה). This entire scenario of events was already established from the beginning, in the Garden, only to be revealed at the coming of the Messiah, יהוה בן יהוה. Praise יהוה בן יהוה for His mercy and saving grace. Praise יהוה. Thus, יהוה בן יהוה already knew the end - from the beginning (from what יהוה declared in the beginning) [Isaiah 46:10] and it did not deter or prevent Him from coming to fulfill prophecy (not just the good part), but all of it. We serve a Wonderful and Loving God, יהוה בן יהוה. Praise יהוה!

At the end of the initial phrase “And there was war in heaven,” a colon (:) is situated, and I’m quite sure that it is not there by happenstance. Noted in Webster’s Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, page 260, colon (:) is defined as “a punctuation mark: used chiefly to direct attention to matter (as a list, explanation, or quotation) that follows.”

Now this war in heaven is ongoing and will continue until the Dragon and his angels are completely and utterly destroyed by יהוה. However, although this war is already in the process and will intensify in time to come, the colon (:) in Revelation 12:5 is directing our attention to the quotation that follows, which is “Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels.” Since the dragon appears to be listed as a prime character and protagonist in Revelation Chapter 12, Verses 3-4 and now 7, then let us uncover some important facts about the dragon and his angels.

Consistent with Holman Bible Dictionary, copyright 1991, page 378, Dragon is described as “a serpent. In Jeremiah 51:34, Ezekiel 29:3, it is used as a symbol of Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon or the Egyptian Pharaoh. Leviathan and Rahab are used as parallel terms.” There is so much to understand from this bible dictionary definition. Let’s first start by reading the two Scriptures referenced in the definition. Turn to Jeremiah 51:34, and it reads...

Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out.

Turn to Ezekiel 29:3, and it reads...

Speak, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD, יהוה; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself.

In conformity with Thorndike-Barnhart Advanced Junior Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 1968, page 586, parallel means “comparison to show likeness; be like; be similar to.”

It is very important to point out that the definition of dragon said, “a symbol of Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon or the Egyptian Pharaoh” and not a symbol for. There is a big difference. On the authority of The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, copyright 1981, page 1302, symbol is defined as “something that represents something else by association, resemblance, or convention.” The etymology is from the Greek sumbolon meaning [token for identification (by comparing its counterpart)]. In other words, in order to fully understand the character and nature of the dragon, we must pay special attention to Biblical historical figures that resembles or identifies with the dragon by association of behavior and characteristics. We must be able to compare the referenced examples and show the like attributes and similarities.

According to The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, copyright 1981, page 304, counterpart is described as “one that closely or exactly resemble another, as in function or relation.” Another definition of counterpart from Thorndike-Barnhart Advanced Junior Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 1968, on page 186 is “copy; duplicate.”

Once we scrutinize the list of characters described in the definition of dragon, then we will have a clear picture of the dragon from its counterparts because whatever we discover about the dragon's counterparts, we know that the dragon will either closely or exactly resemble them, being a copy and duplicate of their actions, causing history to repeat itself. We won't have to ask ourselves any questions about the nature of the dragon or what his function is because by definition the dragon is a duplicate of his predecessors.

Consistent with Holman Bible Dictionary, copyright 1991, page 875, Leviathan states, "Isaiah 27:1 refers to Leviathan as 'the dragon that is in the sea.'" Let us turn to Isaiah 27:1, and it reads...

In that day the Lord, יהוה, with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.

In the seminar The Rising of the Beast Out of the Sea, Part 1, it was proven with clear and convincing facts that the sea represents the See of Rome, which leads to the Roman Catholic Church of which the Pope is the head. Leviathan is described as a crooked serpent. Something that is crooked is bent and you have to admit that the Pope is consistently bent over. He does not stand straight or upright, thus being crooked. This just further establishes that the Pope of Rome is this dragon that is in the sea. Now that we have seen the parallel of Leviathan to the dragon, let us move forward to the parallel to Rahab.

Referenced in Holman Bible Dictionary, copyright 1991, page 1163, Rahab is a “name meaning arrogant, raging, turbulent, afflicter. Symbolic name for Egypt (Psalm 87:4).”

Let us turn to Psalm 87:4 and read it in part.

I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me: behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia;

Stop right there. All of these places that are mentioned in this Scripture are very similar in character and all stem from and are identified with the dragon. Let's find out how. What is Philistia and who are the people that dwelled in that land? In conformity with Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, page 882, Philistia is described as “the class or world of cultural Philistines.”

In Psalm 87:4, Rahab is symbolic of Egypt, the arrogant nation that afflicted our Hebrew Israelite forefathers, the children of Israel in bondage for 230 years and refused to let them go. יהוה destroyed Egypt with ten plagues, which forced Egypt to release the children of Egypt. This story can be found in Exodus, Chapter 12. Rahab, Egypt, is being compared to Babylon who also took the tribe of Judah into captivity (Daniel 1:1-6). Nebuchadnezzar was arrogant, and יהוה had to humble him by giving Nebuchadnezzar the mind of a beast (Daniel 4:32). In Revelation 18:2, Babylon is called Babylon the great and is depicted to fall.

Next, Philistia, the world of the Philistines is also included in this comparison, for in the era or time of David (who בן יהוה is the root and the offspring of) the Philistines did battle or made war with Israel. And the Philistines employed the services of Goliath, an arrogant giant to defeat the armies of Israel. But, יהוה raised up David, a youth who was a man after the heart (mind and spirit) of יהוה to destroy Goliath with his own sword and defeat the Philistines in 1 Samuel, Chapter 17.

And last, but not least in this comparison to Rahab is Tyre. The description of Tyre can be found in Ezekiel 28:2-19. Turn to Ezekiel, Chapter 28, and read verses 2, 6-7, 9, 13, 18-19.

Son of man, say unto the prince of Tyrus,
Thus saith the Lord GOD, יהוה; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, יהוה, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God, יהוה:

Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, יהוה;
Because thou hast set thine heart as the heart of God, יהוה;

Behold, therefore I will bring strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness.

Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth thee.

Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God, יהוה;

Stop right there. Verses 18 and 19, read...

Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold thee.

All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou be any more.

These Scriptures illustrate the similarities, the exact resemblance of its counterpart today known as America. America, the great, America the beautiful is a duplicate and copy of Rahab, symbolic of Egypt, Babylon, Philistia, with Goliath, and Tyre. יהוה is in the process of judging America and will destroy her, just as He destroyed other countries, for her unjust treatment and captivity of His Son, יהוה בן יהוה! Let us turn to Isaiah 51:9 and it reads...

Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD, יהוה; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon?

Isaiah 51:9 continues showing the association of Rahab (Egypt) with/to the dragon. The dragon has already been identified as the Pope of Rome, who is the head of the Roman Catholic Church. How is Egypt (an emblem of America) associated with the dragon and what does that have to do with events going on in the world today?

As stated by Holman Bible Dictionary, copyright 1991, page 402, under the history of Egypt, it states “During the New Testament period, Egypt, under the direct rule of the Roman Emperor, was the breadbasket of Rome.” The events described in the New Testament never happened before, but are being fulfilled in this present day, in your and my lifetime. Egypt, America is under the direct rule/command of the Roman Empire today and is therefore the breadbasket of Rome. Let us get a proper understanding of what this means. Breadbasket is composed of 2 words, bread and basket. In accord with Roget's International Thesaurus, Fourth Edition, copyright 1977, in the Index there are two subcategories for bread: money and support. On page 617, reference #785.3, support is equivalent to “economic support.” In addition, under reference #785.8 support is also synonymous to reserves and reserve forces.

Thus we can see that America, under the leadership of President George W. Bush, Jr., under the direct rule of the Roman Empire as the breadbasket of Rome, will give economic support to the Roman Empire/Roman Catholic Church of which the Pope is the head. But that is not the only support that America has pledged its allegiance to Rome. America has also given Rome its support in the form of its reserves and reserve forces.

On the authority of The Random House College Dictionary, Revised Edition, copyright 1984, page 1122, reserves is defined as “the enrolled but not regular components of the armed forces.” On page 74, armed forces is described as “military, naval, and air forces, esp. of a nation or of a number of nations.” This illustrates clearly that America also will give Rome its military support: the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marines, along with the armed forces of the other nations who are allies, for example, Great Britain. This stems from the word bread in breadbasket.

Now why would America give such economic and military support to the Pope of Rome? This will be answered as we analyze basket. Referenced in The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, page 99, a synonym for basket is “vessel.” Cited in The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, copyright 1981, page 1425, vessel means “a person considered as a receptacle or agent of some quality.” On page 24, agent is defined as “one that acts or has the power or authority to act; one that acts for or as a representative of another.” America, as the breadbasket of Rome, will give its economic and military support to the Pope of Rome and in exchange the Pope will allow America under the leadership of the President to be an agent with the power and authority to act for him and to be his representative. Turn to Revelation 13:4, which reads...

And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

This collective group of facts indicates that during this war in heaven (on earth) that the dragon with his angels, bishops, archbishops, dioceses, archdioceses, priests, ministers, and clergymen did not just fight this battle, but the dragon will have the direct support of America [the president, his military support, his government and legislative support, his judicial support, and media support of television, radio, and newspaper]. All of these people and agencies (signified as the dragon and his angels) are going to come against Michael and his angels.

Question: Who are Michael and his angels that will fight against the dragon? Let us start with the angels. According to The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, page 49, a few synonyms for angel are “patron, supporter, promoter, benefactor, well-wisher.” Fear not, O Israel, יהוה בן יהוה and His Nation of יהוה are not alone in this war. Let us verify this by turning to Deuteronomy 1:30, which reads...

The LORD your God, יהוה, which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

Deuteronomy 3:22, read...

Ye shall not fear them: for the LORD your God, יהוה, he shall fight for you.

And lastly, Deuteronomy 20:4, which reads...

For the LORD your God, יהוה, is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

Just as in the days of Elisha (the Messenger of יהוה) when the king of Syria warred against Israel, they had horses, chariots, and a great host that compassed the city, and Elisha's servant was wondering what they were going to do. Let us turn to 2 Kings 6:15-17 and read...

And when the servant of the man of God, יהוה, was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?

And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them.

And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, יהוה, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD, יהוה, opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.

Praise יהוה! So it is today. There are more with us than there are with our enemies. We might not be able to see the other angels right now, but there are supporters of יהוה בן יהוה and our cause that are promoters of and believe in morality. There are benefactors and patrons who are discreetly paying tithes, giving donations for books, video and audio tapes, and transcripts. There are well-wishers (people who wish בן יהוה יהוה and our Nation well) who are also watching our television program, The Universe of יהוה, in the privacy of their own homes via cable, satellite, and the internet. These angels from all nations are visiting our website www.yahwehbenyahweh.com and are receiving the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth through the shocking revelations of the seminars conducted at our Feasts. Those angels are out there and will soon make themselves visible to support יהוה בן יהוה and our Nation in this war, as the battle continues to heat up. Praise יהוה!

In conformity with Roget's International Thesaurus, Fourth Edition, copyright 1977, page 732, reference #942.1, a few synonyms for benefactor are "Samaritan, good Samaritan, good person, ‘a very present help in time of trouble’ [Bible].”

Since this is referenced in the Bible, let us turn to Psalm 46:1, which reads...

God, יהוה, is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

These benefactors or angels will be sent directly from יהוה during our time of trouble and will be more than ready politically, educationally, economically, socially, and spiritually to assist us in this war against the dragon. So just who are some of these angels who will lend their support to יהוה בן יהוה and His Nation of יהוה?

From the synonyms of benefactor, they are Samaritans and good Samaritans. Question: What people in society today are hidden under the term or name Samaritan? Let us examine this to find out. Expressed in The Random House College Dictionary, Revised Edition, copyright 1984, page 568, Good Samaritan is defined as “A person who gratuitously gives help or sympathy to someone in distress, Luke 10:30-37.” On page 576, gratuitous, the root word of gratuitously means “given, bestowed, or obtained without charge or payment; free.” Let us turn to Luke 10:30-35, which reads...

And יהוה בן יהוה answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

Therefore a Good Samaritan is someone who gives or bestows a service without a charge or literally free. Now let us analyze the word Samaritan to find out what this represents. According to The Random House College Dictionary, Revised Edition, copyright 1984, page 1165, Samaritan is defined as “an inhabitant of Samaria.” On the same page, Samaria is described as “a district in ancient Palestine: later part of the Roman province of Syria; taken by Jordan 1948; occupied by Israeli forces 1967.” So by definition, Israelis now occupy Samaria.

From this same Random House Dictionary, on page 710, Israeli means “a native or inhabitant of modern Israel.” On page 858, modern is defined as “of or pertaining to present and recent time; not ancient or remote.” On page 49, ancient means “a person who lived in ancient times, esp. Greek, Roman, or Hebrew.” This indicates that a Samaritan is an Israeli who is not of ancient times and, therefore, is not a Hebrew although residing in or being a native of present day or modern Israel.

In accordance with The Random House College Dictionary, Revised Edition, copyright 1984, page 710, Israel is defined as “a republic in SW Asia, on the Mediterranean: formed as a Jewish State May 1948.” On page 719, Jewish is described as “pertaining to, characteristic of, or noting the Jews.” From the same source on the same page, Jew is defined as “a person whose religion is Judaism.” And on page 724, Judaism is described as “the monotheistic religion of the Jews, based on the precepts of the Old Testament.”

The facts presented from these definitions validate that the angels who are against the dragon in Revelation 12:7 are equivalent to Good Samaritans (also known as Israelis, Jewish people, or Jews) who will give or bestow their services in this battle gratuitously, without charge and for free. These angels or Jews have a religion based on the precepts, principles, teachings, and laws of the Old Testament and therefore believe in the God of the Old Testament whose name is יהוה. These angels will have no problem with their responsibility of fighting against the dragon and his angels. These angels will not fight against the dragon on their own, but will be led by Michael for the Scripture says, “Michael and his angels fought against the dragon.”

In our next seminar, we will resume with Revelation 12:7 as we continue to obtain an understanding of future events pertaining to this war in heaven which must come to pass. I thank and praise our Father, יהוה בן יהוה, for giving me the blessed opportunity to share His Words with you today as it relates to A Message For Law Keepers, Preparing For Rulership. Praise יהוה!
