

“And Many False Prophets Shall Rise, ...”

Part Five

Shalom aleichem. All praises be to our Almighty God, יהוה, the Creator of all things in the earth and in the Heavens--seen and unseen. Give glory to יהוה for He alone is worthy to be praised. Give glory to יהוה for sending His “only” begotten Son, יהוה בן יהוה, to make the full and eternal atonement so that our sins of breaking the laws of יהוה are not only forgiven but also remembered no more (Jeremiah 31:34). Praise יהוה! Because of the sacrifice that יהוה בן יהוה is making for us, יהוה shall subdue our iniquities; and cast all of our sins into the depths of the sea (Micah 7:19). Give glory to our merciful God, יהוה, and His suffering Servant and Son, יהוה בן יהוה!

Give glory to יהוה בן יהוה for coming to us to serve as the propitiation for our sins. To serve as the propitiation for our sins means that יהוה בן יהוה agreed to sacrifice His life so that we might become favorably inclined to יהוה again; so that we can regain the good will of יהוה; so that we can make peace with יהוה; and so that we might be redeemed. And יהוה is so loving, that He not only sent יהוה בן יהוה to be the propitiation for our sins only, but also for the sins of the whole world (1 John 2:2). Give glory to יהוה and to His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, for they alone are deserving of all honor, praise, exaltation, and glorification.

His suffering shall not be in vain, because this is the day and the time when the Lord, יהוה, shall look for the iniquity of Israel, and there shall be none; and He shall look for the sins of Yehuwdah (Judah), and none shall be found. None shall be found because יהוה בן יהוה volunteered to surrender to the pain and suffering that had to be done so He could teach us the laws of יהוה, to teach us the word of יהוה, and to give us the understanding that if we return to יהוה, He would return to us. And not only that, but that if we keep all the laws of יהוה, He would raise us high above all nations and return us to our own land--Canaan, the Promised Land. Give glory to יהוה! Give glory to יהוה בן יהוה for His mercy and everlasting love for us.

This is why we are fully committed and absolutely determined to keep all the laws of יהוה so that no sin shall be found in us any more. Thank You, יהוה, for sending יהוה בן יהוה to make the full and eternal sacrifice for us that we might return to You and do Your will for ever and ever. Praise יהוה!

Welcome to our Twenty-Seventh Annual Passover and Feast of Unleavened Bread commemoration, in the solar year of 6010, here in the land of Canada, in one of the most beautiful cities in the world, Montreal, located in the Province of Quebec--the only country in the whole world where יהוה, the God of the Hebrews, has chosen to place His holy name.

We shall continue our course of revealing some more of the many lies the million of false prophets have made their refuge and the falsehood under which they have hid themselves (Isaiah 28:15). We are going to bring truth and logic to another one of their greatest lies, and that is, ... the dead in Christ shall rise out of their physical graves to meet Jesus in the physical air. The false prophets have led over 2 billion people to believe this literally, using 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17 as their base. Let us turn to and read that please:

*[16] For the Lord, יהוה, Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God, יהוה: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

[17] Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

According to the teachings of the false prophets, the physically dead people are going to rise up out of their graves first, and then those which are still alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet Jesus in the air and they shall all be with him forever. Many of our relatives died believing this literally.

Listen, your grandmomma, granddaddy, momma, daddy, sisters, brothers, children, nephews, nieces, grandchildren, cousins, friends, business associates, coworkers, girlfriends, boyfriends--no body you ever knew that physically died--are going to get up out of their physical graves in the grave yard to meet no Jesus in the sky.

You are not going to see no dead stinking, rotten, fleshless, skeletal-looking physical bodies coming up out of no graves--just kicking their way from underneath six feet of dirt and breaking through the thick slab of concrete like Tarzan--and just quickly floating up like superman (or a bird) in the sky and hooking up with Jesus in the air. Absolute nonsense! And totally illogical. We must come to the realization that the whole world has been deceived, as written in Revelation 12:9.

That scenario is just as ludicrous as a rabbit (not a chicken) laying the colored Easter bunny eggs and Santa Claus being flown in from the North Pole in a sleigh pulled by twelve reindeer up in the sky. Believe it or not, the very same people who gave us these lies and falsehood are the very same people who also gave us Jesus coming in the physical clouds and the physically dead people coming up out of their physical graves to meet him in the physical air. All are absolutely preposterous--totally contrary to nature, reason, and common sense.

Our objective today is to shed light on what this saying really means. However, before we start our research, a clear understanding of the word dead should make things a little more navigable. One of the many definitions of dead is “extinct.” While extinct is described as “lost”; lost means to be “destroyed morally.” And dead is also suggestive of “death”; and death is defined as “absence of spiritual life” (according to Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software and The American Heritage Dictionary of the English Language, High-School Edition, copyright 1979, on page 339). According to Romans 7:14, “... the LAW is spiritual:” Thus, the dead, as it relates to this particular matter, are a morally destroyed people because they are absent of the LAWS of God, יהרה, in their lives.

With that thought in mind, we are now ready to embark on our mission to bring reality to the false teachings of the many false prophets that ... the physically dead shall rise out of their physical graves to meet Jesus in the air. Matthew 27:52-53 will lay the foundation for our study. Let us read please:

[52] And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

[53] And came out of the graves after His [יהרה בן יהרה] resurrection,....

These verses are written in the form of a metaphor. And a metaphor is “a figure of speech in which a word or phrase literally denoting one kind of object or idea is used in place of another to suggest a ‘likeness’ between them” (according to Webster’s Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, on page 746). So graves in these verses are not actually physical graves as we know them, but rather, “something else” that suggests a likeness to that of graves.

Maintaining that line of thought, let us begin to decode our first foundation Scripture, Matthew 27:52, up to the semicolon. And it reads:

And the graves were opened;...

The two words we shall decipher at this time are the and graves. The word the is equivalent to “peculiar”; and peculiar is defined as “of only one group; or out of the ordinary” (as documented in Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software). Based on the integrity of The New Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, on page 432, the word graves in Greek is spelled m-n-e-m-e-i-o-n (reference number 3419), pronounced mney-mi-on, and it is defined as “a remembrance, i.e. cenotaph (place of interment).” And remembrance means the same as “mind” (according to Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus).

So by virtue of these facts, it can be concluded thus far that graves are representative of the minds of only one group of people who are morally destroyed and, therefore, are out of the ordinary because they are absent of the LAWS of God, יהוה, in their lives.

The example given for graves was “a cenotaph (a place of interment).” A cenotaph is an “empty tomb honoring a person whose remains are elsewhere.”

Empty is synonymous to lacking. Remains are “traces of the past.” While interment is commensurate with “captivity and burial”; bury (the derivation of burial) is “to hide (something) in the ground; to cover up so as to conceal” (all from the aforementioned source).

Based on the authenticity of these facts, we can assert that graves are metaphorically describing the minds of only “one” group of people who are morally destroyed and out of the ordinary because they are absent of the LAWS of God, יהוה, and are lacking in knowledge that traces their past, which has been hidden (like a body in the grave) and covered up so as to conceal their past from them. Therefore, they are a people in captivity. Thus, just like the minds of people in graves have no remembrance, the minds of live people can in like manner also have no remembrance. And just like people in the graves no longer remember traces of their past, such can also be said of live persons who can no longer remember traces of their past as well.

With that said and done, we can move to our next point of interest, which is, the minds (or their remembrance) were opened. The preponderance of the evidence thus far points to the probability that since the minds were opened, then something happened to cause their minds to be closed. Therefore, it is imperative to interrupt our flow and find out what their minds were closed of, and Psalm 83:1-5 has the answer. So let us read about this. Read please in part starting at keep:

[1] ... Keep not Thou silence, O God, יְהוָה: hold not Thy peace, and be not still, O God, יְהוָה.

[2] For, lo, Thine enemies make a tumult: and they that hate Thee have lifted up the head.

[3] They have taken crafty counsel against Thy people, and consulted against Thy hidden ones.

[4] They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the “name” of Israel may be no more in remembrance.

[5] For they have consulted together with one consent: they are confederate against Thee:

Cut off means to suppress; and to suppress is “to keep from being known” (according to Webster’s New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 1999, on page 1439). So this tells us that the enemies who hate יְהוָה and His people--this one group of people who are out of the ordinary--took crafty counsel against them. They also consulted with others who consented with them to keep this one group of people from being a nation. And even until this very day, they are confederate against this one group to keep them from ever having any remembrance of their “true” name Israel. Because this one group of people have no knowledge of their nation and no remembrance of their “true” name Israel, their “minds” have to be “opened” to this knowledge so that they can be set free from captivity.

With that said, we shall resume our discussion and move on to our next word to decode, which is opened. To learn what it means, we shall call upon the sworn testimony of Webster's Ninth New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1989, on page 826, which firmly declares that the word open (the present tense of opened) means “completely free from concealment: exposed to general knowledge; willing to hear and consider or to accept and deal with; and, not repressed by legal controls.” The synonyms--lift the veil, make known, bring to the light, open up; freethinking; uninfluenced; and unprejudiced--all mean the same as open or open minded (as validated in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 1161, reference numbers 180.8, 289.9, 592.9, and 829.11) .

Hence, the metaphor the graves were opened can be interpreted to mean that the minds (or remembrance) of the people of יהוה--this one group of people--shall be set completely free from that which has been concealed from them; and their minds shall be exposed to all the knowledge about their nation and about their “true” name Israel. It also means that this one group of people shall eventually demonstrate a strong willingness to “hear” יהוה בן יהוה as well as to seriously consider, fully accept, and eagerly deal with the biblical and historical facts He has documented to trace their past as a nation, which has been hidden and covered up (like a body in a grave) so as to conceal their “true” identity.

And, after being exposed to this substantive knowledge, they shall no longer be repressed by legal controls, meaning they will no longer be afraid of any judicial reprisal from the government or what might happen to them. To put it plainly, the graves were opened is to say that the “minds” of this one group of people shall be set completely free from captivity.

The metaphor, the graves were opened, can also be interpreted to mean that all the knowledge about the laws of their God, יהוה, their nation, and their “true” name Israel shall be unveiled, meaning it shall be made known to them; it shall be brought to the light, brought out into the open, and opened up completely for their edification. In other words, their minds shall no longer be prejudiced by what others may say--so much so that they shall become a free-thinking people who will no longer be influenced by their family, friends, coworkers, and the like, as well as the refuge of lies and falsehood that have been promulgated by the millions of false prophets.

Therefore, as for the likeness of the metaphor, And the graves were opened..., it can be said that graves being dug up to expose knowledge about dead people is “like” unto digging into the minds of “live” people to expose hidden knowledge or to exhume remembrance.

We shall now move forward to the next clause in our first foundation Scripture (Matthew 27:52). But first, take note that after the word opened is a semicolon--(“And the graves were opened[;] and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,”). It is important to understand why this particular punctuation was used. To gain an understanding of this, we shall confer with The Gregg Reference Manual, Tenth Edition, copyright 2005, reference 177, on page 44, which denotes that “a comma is normally used to separate two independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction. However, under certain circumstances a semicolon may be used. Use a semicolon in order to achieve a stronger break between clauses than a comma provides.”

In Matthew 27:52, usually a comma would be used to separate two independent clauses joined by a coordinating conjunction (in this case and), but a semicolon was used to achieve a stronger break between these two independent clauses. The point is this, although there is a strong break between the two and they are independent, they are yet strongly related in some way.

Keeping that in mind, let us read the second independent clause and then find out in what way they are related, and it reads:

. . . many bodies of the saints which slept arose,

What does the word bodies symbolize, and in what way are bodies related to the minds of this one group of people who are morally destroyed and out of the ordinary? To find the answer, consultation with the experts is mandatory.

Therefore, trusting the expert advice of The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 706, the word many (an adjective) is equivalent to multitudinous or countless. Given the flawlessness of The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, on page 136, the word bodies (reference number 4983) in Greek is spelled s-o-m-a, pronounced so'-mah, and it means “slave.” And the word of means “distinguished as the best, etc., from among” (as referenced in Webster's New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 1999, on page 1000).

So bodies are symbolic of slaves. Thus, the metaphor graves and bodies are literally the “best” minds from among the slaves. Thus, minds and slaves are related in that they are one and the same. Taking that into full consideration, we shall now search for a more explicit meaning of the word slaves. And for that, we shall consult with Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 1290. Under the word slave (reference number 69.8) is bondman, bondmaid; and galley. Based on the established credibility of Webster's New World Dictionary, Third College Edition, copyright 1994, on page 552, a galley is “a long, low, usually single-decked ship propelled by oars and sails, used esp. in ancient ... times: the oars were usually manned by chained slaves.” Slave is also someone who is “oppressed and a victim of discrimination.”

To bring reality to these definitions, let us read Deuteronomy 28:68, Jeremiah 13:19, and Acts 7:6, in that order please. Let us read:

[68] And the Lord, יהוה, shall bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I spake unto thee, Thou shalt see it no more again: and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

[19] *The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: Judah [Yehuwdah] shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive.

[6] *And God, יהוה, spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them evil four hundred years.

Putting together all of this information, the following facts emerge: Yehuwdah (Judah) is the so-called African Americans today--the descendants of the bondmen and bondwomen who were carried away captive and brought to America, a strange land, in 1555 on long, low, single-decked ships propelled by oars and sails that were manned by them while in chains. They were sold to their enemies (slave masters) and worked on their plantations in the cities of the south. And indeed they were, as well as we, their descendants, have been entreated evil--oppressed and made victims of discrimination--for over four hundred years.

Therefore, bodies (in Matthew 27:52) are actually the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans. Now in spite of all that has happened to this one group of people, a great multitude or a countless number from among the saints shall arise. Notice that not all arose, but only those from among the saints which slept arose, which brings us to the last part of the clause to be decoded, which is ... the saints which slept arose.

At this point, we shall define the words saint, which, slept, and arose. In Vines Complete Expository Dictionary of Old and New Testament Words, copyright 1985, on page 544, a saint is described as “them that believed.” And to believe is “to accept as true, genuine, or real; to accept the word of” (according to Merriam Webster 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software).

Now the phrase, ...which slept Which (continuing in the same source) means “being what ones out of a group.” Sleep (the present tense of slept) means the same as “unconsciousness” (according Roget’s International Thesaurus, Fourth Edition, copyright 1977, on page 1212, reference number 423.2). In The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1276, to be unconscious is to be “blind to”; and to be blind is to “have information withheld intentionally” (as referenced in Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software).

Let us stop here a moment and read about this blindness in 2 Corinthians 3:14, and it reads:

But their minds were blinded: for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.

The minds of the so-called African Americans are blinded when they read the Old Testament. Why the Old Testament? Because the Old Testament is where the knowledge of their “true” name Israel and traces of their past as a nation are written. Despite the fact that this information has been withheld intentionally from them, those who sincerely accept the word of Christ, יהוה בן יהוה, as true, genuine, and real shall arise, and their blinded minds shall be done away with.

Now this brings us to our last word to define in the series, which is arose (the past tense of arise). In conformity with The New Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, on page 77, the word arose in Greek (reference number 1453) is spelled e-g-e-i-r-o, pronounced eg-i-ro, and it means, “(through the idea of collecting one’s faculties).” Faculty, the singular of faculties, means “power”; and power is synonymous to command. Under the word power, command is defined as “the power to make arbitrary decisions and compel obedience” (as documented in Merriam Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software). Arise is synonymous to awake and revive, which mean “to bring to mind again” (according to Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software).

Based on the accuracy of these facts, arose means that the full truth about being a nation and the name Israel shall be brought again to the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans, descendants of slaves and, at this time, they shall make an arbitrary decision to accept יהוה as their God; receive His only begotten Son, יהוה בן יהוה, as their Savior and, most of all, compel absolute obedience to all the LAWS of יהוה in their daily lives.

In summary, the real interpretation of the metaphor, And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, is about only “one” group of people--the so-called African Americans, descendants of slaves--who are morally destroyed and out of the ordinary because their “minds” are absent of the LAWS of God, יהוה, and they are lacking in knowledge that traces their past, which has been hidden (like a body in the ground) and covered up so as to conceal their true identity (or their past) from them.

This knowledge has been hidden by those who hate יהוה. And because they hate Him, they have taken crafty counsel against His people, and have consulted with others, who have consented with them, to be confederate against the people of יהוה to keep them from being a nation and from ever having any remembrance of their “true” name Israel.

But, in spite of this, their minds (like graves) shall be opened, meaning all that was concealed shall be unveiled, made known, brought to the light, brought out into the open, and opened up completely for their edification. Their minds shall be opened, meaning that they shall no longer be prejudiced by what others may say--so much so that they shall no longer be afraid of what the government might do to them nor what might happen to them. In fact, they shall become a free-thinking people, who will no longer be influenced by their family, friends, coworkers, and the like, neither by the refuge of lies and the falsehood that have been promulgated by the millions of false prophets.

Our research revealed that many bodies of the saints which slept arose are actually a great multitude or a countless number of the so-called African Americans whose minds are blinded to the fact that when they are reading the Old Testament, they are actually reading about themselves as Judah (Yehuwdah) and Israel (Yisrael), and their nation--the Nation of God, יהוה. Even though this information has been withheld intentionally from them, the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans shall, at the “divinely” appointed time, accept the Word of יהוה בן יהוה, as true, genuine, and real; and them that do shall arise out of their graves of ignorance, meaning their blinded minds shall be done away in Christ, יהוה בן יהוה.

And, far more importantly, their subsequent actions shall shake terribly the earth--in that they shall make an arbitrary (or conscious) decision to openly accept יהוה as their God; receive His only begotten Son, יהוה בן יהוה, as their Savior and, most of all, compel absolute obedience to “all” the LAWS of יהוה in their daily lives. And this is the real interpretation of the metaphor, And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose.

Now this brings us to our last foundation Scripture (Matthew 27:53), which explains in detail exactly “when” all of this shall take place, and it reads in part:

And came out of the graves after His resurrection,....

Take note that there is a comma at the end of Verse 52 (And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose,) which means Verse 53 (And came out of the graves after His resurrection,...) is a continuation. So the subject is still about the slaves (bodies). Therefore, it can be paraphrased to read, And the descendants of slaves--the so-called African Americans--came out of the graves of ignorance after the resurrection of יהוה בן יהוה.

With that, let us define the phrase came out and, at the same time, give some additional definitions of the word grave. Based on the accuracy of Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 858, come out, the present tense of came out, means to “come forward, emerge, reveal oneself; and come on the stage”; come out into the open; and stand in full view (reference numbers 264.13, 14; 843.15). On the other hand, graves are also synonymous to dead (as referenced in Webster's New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software). Again in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, dead (reference number 413.9, on page 891) also means the same as unconcerned, lazy, idle; wait-and-see, unhearing, and unseeing. And the word after means the same as “following.”

Hence, “following” the resurrection of יהוה בן יהוה, the so-called African Americans who had been unconcerned about tracing their past shall come forward, out in the open, and show themselves to be very concerned about and overly aggressive in their search for the truth. Plus, those who had been too lazy to study the Scriptures for themselves shall emerge and show a deep interest in learning how to study the Scriptures according to the “divine” Ten Step Study Method of יהוה בן יהוה.

“Following” the resurrection of יהוה בן יהוה, those whose minds had been idle and had no interest in ever learning anything about their “true” name--simply because they had proudly accepted their slave masters’ names--shall reveal themselves as desperately wanting to know all the facts about their “true” name Israel. And even more than that, they shall stand unabashedly in full view of all others and boldly express their burning desire to study and understand all that is written in the Old Testament (KJV).

Further research shows that come out (reference number 843.15) also means to stand up, make no secret of, reveal one’s thoughts and opinions, and have no shame. Therefore, “following” the resurrection of יהוה בן יהוה, those who once had no interest in seeing יהוה בן יהוה “in person” shall all of a sudden stand up and let it be known that they are in fact “very” interested in actually seeing His physical body.

Besides, those who were not the least bit motivated to hear His message shall make no secret in letting it be known that, yes, they are now reading His books, watching His television program, listening to Him on the radio, and even downloading everything on His website. Moreover, those who had been waiting back to see what was going to happen to בן יהוה יהוה shall have absolutely no shame publicly revealing their positive thoughts and honest opinions about Him and His moral teachings.

Furthermore, the phrase come out (the past tense of came out) is also defined as “a first appearance; to declare oneself especially in public utterance; to openly declare something about oneself previously kept hidden” (as documented in Merriam-Webster’s 11th Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 2003, Computer Software).

The substantive nature of these facts fully set forth the conclusion that “following” the resurrection of בן יהוה יהוה, a great multitude or a countless number of the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans, descendants of “slaves”--the one group of people who have been morally destroyed and are out of the ordinary and whose minds are empty of specific knowledge that traces their past--shall make their first public appearance to openly declare something about themselves that they had previously kept hidden, and that is, they had been studying the teachings of יהוה בן יהוה in the quietness of their own homes for quite some time, but had previously kept it hidden.

Moreover, at this time, many shall even come out on the world stage and not only state publicly but state emphatically that they have made an arbitrary (or conscious) decision to not only accept יהוה as their God, but to also receive His only begotten Son, יהוה בן יהוה, as their Savior. And not only that, but they will say that they shall compel “absolute” obedience to “all” the LAWS of יהוה in their daily lives forevermore. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

Now, since all of this is to happen “following” the resurrection of יהוה בן יהוה, then this will be our next and last word to decipher, which will bring this whole matter to an astonishing conclusion and, at the same time, show why all of this is such a compelling interest to the American government.

Thus, in accordance with The New Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, on page 874, the Greek word for resurrection (reference number 1454 from 1453) is spelled e-g-e-r-s-i-s, pronounced eg-er-sis, and it means “a resurgence (from death); to rouse (lit. from disease, etc.); lift (up), stand (up), take up; or rise again.” And while resurgence is defined as “recovery”; its origin, recover, is described as “to regain health; make a comeback; to heal, or gain strength” (as recorded in Webster’s New World Dictionary & Thesaurus, copyright 1998, Computer Software).

So, when this information is added to And came out of the graves after His resurrection,...it can be interpreted to mean that “following” the time when יהוה בן יהוה shall have regained good health after being completely healed of a deadly disease and made a miraculous comeback from death’s door after being reported by the media that His death was imminent, a countless number of the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans shall stand up and proudly proclaim יהוה as their God.

All of these things shall take place “following” the time when יהוה בן יהוה shall have gained full strength of all His body parts. These things shall all come to be “following” the time when יהוה בן יהוה, whose death the media reported was imminent, shall lift Himself up, stand up again on His own two feet, take up His cross as well as His “death bed” and show forth His miraculous recovery that shall be brought about by His Father, יהוה, to show forth His mighty power before all the nations, and peoples, and tongues of the earth. Praise יהוה!

In the Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 1245, resurrection also means, good as new; brought back to life, raised from the dead; pulled through, lived through, and snapped out of (according to reference numbers 652.14; 28.20; and 809.13). Thus, “following” the time when יהוה בן יהוה shall become good as new and be brought fully back to life, a great multitude or countless number of the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans, descendants of slaves, shall come out of their dead mindset and openly announce their uncompromising allegiance to יהוה בן יהוה, the Messiah.

Furthermore, “following” the time when יהוה בן יהוה shall have lived through and snapped out of a deadly ailment, according to news media reports, and been raised from an almost hopeless condition, and stand before the whole world as living proof that His Father, יהוה, has raised Him from the dead, then that great multitude and countless number of the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans shall come forth out of their do-nothing attitude and meet יהוה בן יהוה in the sky. Which means that they shall be carried away with an endless love for יהוה בן יהוה, be completely absorbed or deeply engrossed in studying the word of יהוה, be full of joy for one another, be burning up with enthusiasm about learning that their nation is in fact The Nation of יהוה, and that their “true” name is Israel. Praise יהוה!

All of this shall be so overwhelming to them that they shall be lifted up in spirit, be carried away with the joy of studying, and just float around like on cloud nine because they will be experiencing a “spiritual” ecstasy due to all the knowledge they will have learned of “divine” things, especially, in the reading of the Old Testament. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

And this is the true meaning of the metaphor, And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, And came out of the graves after His resurrection. We have presented the truth about this matter, which should lay to rest the literal interpretation that has been taught by the millions of false prophets.

Now let us turn to and read an important message in John 5:28, and it reads:

[28] Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear His [יהוה בן יהוה] voice,

Simply stated, marvel not or do not stand in awe at all of this, because the hour “is come” in which “all” the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans, descendants of slaves, shall ultimately “hear” (or listen to) the voice (or teachings) of יהוה בן יהוה. And that hour shall be “following” the time when יהוה בן יהוה shall have risen from the dead, meaning when He shall have made a remarkable recovery from a deadly disease. Praise יהוה.

Now, let us read what יהוה בן יהוה Himself has to say about this whole matter in Ezekiel 37:1-14. Let us read please:

[1] The hand of the Lord, יהוה, was upon Me [יהוה בן יהוה], and carried Me out in the spirit of the Lord, יהוה, and set Me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

[2] And caused Me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

[3] And He said unto Me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord God, יהוה, Thou knowest.

[4] Again He said unto Me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the Lord, יהוה.

[5] Thus saith the Lord God, יהוה, unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

[6] And “I” will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the Lord, יהוה.

[7] So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

[8] And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

[9] Then said He unto Me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord God, יהוה; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.

[10] So I prophesied as He commanded Me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.

[11] Then He said unto Me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts.

To be cut off from our parts is to be cut off from the knowledge of our true history, language, culture, name, land, and God. Continue with Verses 12-14:

[12] Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God, יהוה; Behold, O My people, “I” will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel.

[13] And ye shall know that I am the Lord, יהוה, when “I” have opened your graves, O My people, and brought you up out of your graves, [14] And shall put “My” spirit in you, and ye shall live, and “I” shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that “I” the Lord, יהוה, have spoken it, and performed it, saith the Lord, יהוה.

Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה! This is that great gittin’ up morning that our ancestors sang about on the plantations after they had been taken captive in 1555 and brought to this strange land--to the cities of the South in America on ships--to work as slaves. They left us a coded message that one day, the dry bones were going to come together--bone to his bone. And the foot bone was going to connect to the ankle bone; the ankle bone to the leg bone; the leg bone to the knee bone; the knee bone to the thigh bone, the thigh bone to the hip bone; the hip bone to the back bone; the back bone to the shoulder bone; the shoulder bone to the neck bone; and the neck bone to the head bone. Praise יהוה!

Now to put it plainly, in today’s terms, what they were really saying was that one day, there shall be a great noise, and the “best” minds from among their descendants--the so-called African Americans--were going to start shaking, and those working in the building and ground cleaning and maintenance profession shall connect with those in the food preparation and serving profession; and they shall connect with those in the building trades profession; and they shall connect with those in the farming, fishing, and forestry profession; and then they shall come together and connect with those in the sales and related profession; and they shall connect with those in the office and administrative support profession; and they come forth and join on with those in the community and social services profession; and they shall connect with those in the protective services profession; and they all shall unite with those in the education profession.

And that is not all, but the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans in the education profession shall then merge with those in the business and management profession; and they shall team up with those in the architecture and engineering profession; and they shall connect with those in the life, physical, and social sciences profession; and they shall connect with those in the legal profession.

And even more than that, the “best” minds from among the so-called African Americans in the legal profession shall unite with the “best” minds of those in the health care profession; and they too shall join forces with those in the arts, design, entertainment, sports, and media profession; and they all shall hook up with “best” minds from among those working in the executive and legislative branches of the various governments. And all of these “best” minds together shall meet up with and connect to the “Divine” Mind of יהוה בן יהוה, and they shall all constitute (or make up) that exceeding great army of יהוה בן יהוה!!! Praise יהוה!

When this takes place, then the whole world shall know of a surety that יהוה is God, and that יהוה בן יהוה is our Savior, the mighty Lion of the tribe of Yehuwdah (Judah), the root of David, the only One on earth who has prevailed above all others to not only open the Book but to also loose the seven seals there of. Praise יהוה! And praise His faithful and suffering Servant, יהוה בן יהוה. For יהוה בן יהוה, our Messiah, is come to set the minds of the captives free and to raise us out of our graves of “ignorance!” And this tells us why יהוה בן יהוה is such a compelling interest to the American government.

With that, this brings us to the end of this seminar and exposes the many lies of the false prophets and the falsehood under which they have hid themselves. If you have enjoyed hearing the true meaning of the metaphor, “... the dead in Christ shall rise first and meet the Lord in the air ...,” then give glory to the Son of יהוה--יהוה בן יהוה. For worthy is the Lamb, יהוה בן יהוה, that is being slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing! Let everything that has breath, Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה, the King of Israel! Shalom aleichem.
