

THE BEAST LIKE UNTO A LEOPARD

Part One

Give all praises unto our God, יהוה, and His Son, יהוה בן יהוה! The Father, יהוה, has given us the greatest gift that we can ever receive from the Almighty, including our life. The Father, יהוה, has given unto us a gift greater than any talent or ability that we may wish to possess. The Father, יהוה, has given us a gift much greater than any treasury filled with silver and gold. The gift that the Father, יהוה, has given to us is His Son, יהוה בן יהוה.

It is His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, that has come to give us life that we may live it by praising Him all the days of our lives. It is His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, that has come to give us divine talents and abilities to accomplish His will on the Earth. And it is His Son, יהוה בן יהוה, who has come to make us joint-heirs with Him, inheriting His divine Mind, and great substance like that unto a treasury filled with silver and gold.

We did not always know this. יהוה בן יהוה was not a gift that we understood right away for it had to be revealed unto us because we were dead. This is why He had to be physically born among us, taking on human form, in hopes of resurrecting us from our condition. As our Redeemer, He restored the minds of the citizens of The Nation of יהוה by carrying us upon His shoulders and nourishing us with His Father's law every step of the way. Even when יהוה בן יהוה was taken from us, He counseled us from the tomb, giving us the strength necessary for us to persevere without His physical body. When יהוה בן יהוה ascended, He left His Word with instructions and many clues that would energize, motivate, and empower us to wait for His return. יהוה בן יהוה, who inspires us to delight in Him, obtain pleasure, and the desire to devote our lives to Him, is wonderful, amazing, and extremely good!

As our Counselor, He has guided, directed, and influenced us to maintain a moral course in life by following Him, our Divine Example. יהוה בן יהוה is our everlasting Father who has always been ever present, very near, and in control of our lives: always letting us know that He is with us; especially, in the most trying times. And He is the Prince of Peace, who shall come again to establish the Government of יהוה: peace on Earth that shall last forever. Give יהוה בן יהוה all the praises, honor, and glory that He is due. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

Welcome to this seminar entitled: The Beast Like Unto a Leopard.

Our foundation Scripture is found in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 2, which reads:

And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

We begin our study by defining the word and. In accordance with Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 49 and is "(used to introduce a sentence, implying continuation)"; then from this definition, we can determine that and is used to introduce the sentence in Revelation 13:2, which is a continuation of Revelation 13:1. Therefore, in order to decode verse 2, we must first understand what was revealed in verse 1. Let us read Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 1:

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

This Scripture has already been thoroughly decoded and the study has been documented and published in the book entitled: The Rising of the Beast out the Sea. In that book, the beast is factually proven to be former President George W. Bush who rose up out of the sea, meaning that he progressed toward the completion of a ONE WORLD RELIGION of Christianity under the direction of the Pope. With his seven heads, which was verified as the G8, the seven most industrialized nations of the Earth including America, he created conspiracies in the world to distract all people as they met in G8 Summits to discuss the institution of the World Government that would control the production of wealth, money, assets, and natural resources.

Furthermore, the way in which the G8 will get the nations of the Earth to formally agree to the World Government is through trade. Therefore, the nations that have not made a formal agreement to join the World Government will be cut off from the world of commerce. This is how they will conspire to make all nations ONE under the World Government. All of this will affect the nations of the Earth as well as all people—whether great or small, rich or poor, free or bond. All people shall have to take the mark of the beast, which is implanted personal data that can be read from a laser, if they want to buy or sell anything.

Additionally, and ten horns, a parenthetical statement, laid out how another TERRORIST ATTACK involving nuclear missiles shall result in a WORLD CRISIS that shall usher in the World Government. Moreover, the U.S. government will use the military to institute MARTIAL LAW after the next terrorist attack, which shall be the method that will be used to put all dark-skinned people in concentration camps. The reason being is, that they fear a nation of people that is able to not only uncover the facts about the Gospel of the New Testament; but also loose these very same Scriptures, because they have the testimony of the Messiah, יהוה בן יהוה.

What's more, the clause upon his horns ten crowns, was explained in detail: former President George W. Bush would make wars in the Middle East to not only obtain their natural resources as oil; but to take away their religion of Islam, so that their beliefs are replaced with Christianity. Thus, ten kings or rulers shall be removed and replaced with ten bishops or kings from the Roman Catholic Church who shall govern the Middle East for a short time. This holy war in the Middle East is neither about the Middle East, nor is it about the Islamic people. Rather, it is a subliminal sign of the real war that is forthcoming against The Nation of יהוה.

This brings us to the final clause, upon his heads the name of blasphemy, which outlined that the beast, former President George W. Bush would cause suffering to our Nation by demoralizing us before the world: Officials from the executive branch of government shall use their policies to publish inaccurate news, false reports, create made-up videotapes, and develop fake photographs of our events to the media, hoping and expecting to destroy support for the P.E.E.S.S. Foundation. To do this, they shall use high technology and sophisticated computerizations to create and construct fictional accounts to make it appear as though the P.E.E.S.S. Foundation is guilty of intentionally perverting the truth and breaching the law. All of which shall be done to convince or persuade the public to not take to the wisdom, knowledge, and understanding that we are publishing about the true name of God, יהוה, and His Son, יהוה בן יהוה. In essence, they want to resist the convincing power of יהוה and prevent us from speaking as interpreters of His will. Praise יהוה!

Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

We are so blessed to have received these very detailed revelations so that when we see them come to pass on the world stage, we are not caught unawares. It was necessary for us to review all that has been revealed from Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 1, because verse 2 is its continuation. It is impossible to understand verse 2 without verse 1. Therefore, let us read our foundation Scripture in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 2, again:

And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

Recall that, Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 49, described and as "(used to introduce a sentence, implying continuation); then." In the same source, continuation, on page 290, means a "carrying on to a further point."

From these facts it can be deduced that the word and in this Scripture is used to introduce the beast like unto a leopard who shall carry on to a further point all of what former President George W. Bush gave rise to and began.

Our second definition of the word and is then, which is synonymous to next, as recorded in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1226. Now, next, in the same source, on page 893, is synonymous to succeeding. Succeed, the root word of succeeding, is defined in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 1307, as "to replace another by election; to come after and take the place of, as in an office."

These additional facts explain that the beast like unto a leopard that replaced former President George W. Bush by election came after him by taking his place in office as president. Furthermore, this president that replaced George W. Bush is described in Revelation Chapter 13, verse 2 as a beast. Let us understand why he's depicted as a beast.

And the beast which I saw...

From the authority of The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 2000, beast is reference number 2342 and it is transliterated in Greek as therion, the same as reference number 2339 thera, which means, "a wild animal, as game."

Thus, this president that replaced George W. Bush through election to carry on to a further point what he began is described as a wild animal, as game. We shall first determine why this president is considered wild; and then move on to the fact that he is an animal as game.

Wild in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, under reference number 41.15, is the same as "alien." Funk & Wagnalls College Standard Dictionary, copyright 1942, on page 35, defines alien as "one of another race." Now, animal in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, on page 56, is defined as "a person thought of as a kind or type." A thought in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 1361, is the same as “anticipation.” While the word anticipation, in the same source, on page 58, means “expectation or hope.”

On the account of these definitions, we can determine that the president that replaced George W. Bush by election is a person of another race that is the expectation or hope of a kind or type. We must now define what a kind and a type mean?

From all these facts, we can determine precisely that the president, who is like unto a leopard, that replaced former President George W. Bush through election, is of another race. Because of his race, he is the expectation and hope of a specific people due to his skin color. These specific people are members of a race with such pigmentation, especially black people or African Americans. In addition to this president being their expectation and hope because of his skin color, he is also their type.

Type in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1269, is the same as a model. In the same source on page 742 a model is equal to an ideal. And an ideal in Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, under reference number 360.5, means, "a dream."

Therefore, not only is this president the expectation and hope of black people or African Americans, because of his skin color; but because he also represents the dream.

Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 434 depicts a dream as "a fond aspiration." On page 550 of the same source fond means, "cherished with great or unreasonable affection." Lastly, aspiration on page 84, is "a strong desire or ambition, as for advancement, honor."

The president, who is like unto a leopard, is the expectation or hope of black people in America or African Americans because of his skin color; but, he also symbolizes the strong desire or ambition for advancement and honor that black people in America cherish with great or unreasonable affection.

We must emphasize; however, that this president's skin color and what he is symbolic of is a game according to the transliteration of beast, "a wild animal, as game."

A game in the Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 536 means "a trick or strategy." On page 1292 of the same source, a strategy is, "a plan or method for achieving a specific goal."

The president that replaced George W. Bush through election—to carry on further the One World Religion of Christianity; a World Government through trade; the wars in the Middle East with the aim at converting its people to Christianity; and the persecution of The Nation of יהוה through the slander of the P.E.E.S.S. Foundation—is described as being, like unto a leopard. This president was a trick played on America; most especially, black people or African Americans. The skin color game and dream tactic was the plan or method orchestrated toward achieving the specific goal of the presidency. This was the expectation or hope of black people in America, and of all who bought the skin color game: to finally elect a black president, which was their strong desire or ambition for advancement and honor that they cherish with great or unreasonable affection. Clearly, from all the evidence at hand, we know that this president, like unto a leopard, that replaced George W. Bush through election is President Barack Obama.

We must continue to support these declarations to thoroughly prove that the beast like unto a leopard is President Barack Obama. Therefore, we must return to our foundation Scripture in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 2, to continue to make our case.

And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard,...

Why is President Barack Obama like unto a leopard? Why was this specific animal used to describe him? Let us understand this by consulting The New Strong's Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, copyright 1990, under reference number 3664, which explains that the word like in Greek is homoios and its transliteration is "similar (in appearance or character)."

This transliteration explains that the appearance or character of President Barack Obama is similar to a leopard.

From the authority of Thayer's Greek-English Lexicon of the New Testament, copyright 1977, under reference 3917, leopard is transliterated as a "panther." A panther in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 1041, is defined as "a black leopard."

In the same source, on page 150, black is depicted as “any of the dark-skinned traditional inhabitants of sub-Saharan Africa.”

This is very key information as we make the case that the beast like unto a leopard is President Barack Obama. It is very important to know because the president is not of the so-called Black men of America who were taken from the west coast of Africa, enslaved in America, and who are today labeled African Americans. No, he is of another people. His appearance is similar to that of the so-called Black man of America, but he is of a dark-skinned traditional inhabitant of sub-Saharan Africa. It is public knowledge that his father was from Kenya, which is one of the countries located in sub-Saharan Africa. Therefore, President Barack Obama is similar in appearance to the Black man of America, but is a descendant of sub-Saharan Africa; specifically Kenya, while his character is that of a leopard. It is now time to understand more about this key word leopard.

A leopard according to Funk & Wagnalls Standard College Dictionary, copyright 1963, on page 775, is defined as “a lion shown in side view, with the right front paw raised, and the head facing the observer.”

The word leopard was encoded in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 2 in the form of symbolism of coats of arms or armorial bearings. This key word was not encrypted in this Scripture, so that we would study the animal kingdom and learn everything about leopards. For this reason, we must break down all these symbols to explain the character of Barack Obama who is a lion shown in side view, with the right front paw raised, and the head facing the observer.

First, we will define the fact that he is a lion shown in side view. Secondly, we will analyze his right front paw that is raised. And lastly, come to understand that his head is facing the observer. We will begin with understanding what the lion shown in side view means.

As referenced in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 774, a lion is a "prominent or influential person who is sought after as a celebrity." In the same source, on page 1058, prominent is defined as "leading; important, well-known." Influence the root word of influential, on page 678, is "the power to persuade or obtain advantages resulting from one's position."

From the evidence at hand, we can assert that President Obama whose appearance is similar to that of a traditional inhabitant of sub-

Saharan Africa is a leading president who is important and well-known all throughout America and the world. He has power to persuade people or obtain advantages resulting from his position as well as the fact that he is sought after as a celebrity. Furthermore, he is shown in side view.

According to Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1981, on page 2105, show the present tense of shown, means "to make deliberate display of for the admiration of others." Display in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 309, is to spread out. In the same source, on page 1150, spread out is to advance; disseminate; broadcast; air; televise; publish; publicize; tell of or about; give to the world. Now, advance, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 20, is defined as "to move forward; assistance in hastening the course of anything or in moving toward an objective." While, on page 408, disseminate means "to spread abroad." And on page 68, abroad means "out of one's own country; in a foreign country or countries."

We can assert, from these sources, that Barack Obama, as a leading, important and well-known president, who has the power to not only persuade people, but to also obtain advantages resulting from his position, has deliberately moved forward his side view. With his celebrity status, he has provided his side view with the assistance it needs to hasten its course or move it toward the objective, which is the admiration of others. In fact, he spreads his side view out of his own country and into foreign countries. All in all, his side view is broadcasted, aired, televised, published and publicized. President Obama is effective at telling of his side view and giving it to the world for their admiration. The question becomes what is this side view that he wants the world to have admiration for?

Admire the root word of admiration in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 18, is "to regard with approval, and often respect." Clearly, he wants the world to regard his side view with approval and respect. Let us get to the bottom of this side view by defining it.

Side in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 110, is the same as indirect. Indirect in Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 1988, on page 688, means "not straight." In the same source straight on page 1323 is described as "normal or conventional, as in one's lifestyle." Whereas, view in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1319, is an opinion; stance; position.

We can affirm, from these facts that President Barack Obama's side view is his opinion, stance, and position concerning a lifestyle that is not normal or conventional in which he has hastened the course of and moved it toward the objective of causing the people in America and the world to regard it with approval and respect. He has moved this issue forward by broadcasting it, airing it, televising it, publishing it, publicizing it, and giving the world this lifestyle that is not normal or conventional.

Let us logically determine that if something is not conventional, then it has to be unconventional. Therefore, unconventional in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1277, is equal to queer. While, queer in The American Heritage College Writer's Dictionary, copyright 2013, on page 776, is defined as "gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender."

President Barack Obama as a leading, important, and well-known president who has the power to not only persuade people, but to also obtain advantages resulting from his position has moved forward the gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender lifestyle. This president has spread this gay lifestyle with his right front paw raised. Right front paw raised is the next portion of the definition of leopard that we are currently defining.

Thorndike Barnhart High School Dictionary, copyright 1968, on page 812, defines right as the “privilege of subscribing for a bond; certificate granting such a privilege.” In the same source, on page 109, bond “applies particularly to a connection that brings two people so close together that they may be considered as one.”

In addition to spreading and moving forward the lifestyle of gays, lesbians, bisexuals, or transgender people in America and foreign countries for approval and respect, President Barack Obama also has spread the opinion that these people should have the privilege to subscribe for that which applies particularly to a connection that brings two people so close together that they may be considered as one. President Barack Obama has moved forward this issue with the front paw raised.

Front in Random House Webster’s College Dictionary, copyright 2000, on page 527, is defined as “a movement to achieve a particular end, usually political.” Movement, on page 868, is “a diffusely organized or heterogeneous group of people favoring a generalized common goal.” Diffuse the root word of diffusely, on page 370, means “widely spread.” In The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 505, heterogeneous is synonymous to mixed; diversified.

For spreading approval and respect for gays in America and foreign countries, President Barack Obama has effectively moved forward the support that gays and lesbians should have the privilege to subscribe for that which applies particularly to a connection that brings two people so close together that they may be considered as one. He has moved this issue forward with a widely spread organized, mixed, and diversified group of people favoring this generalized common goal to achieve this particular end politically, which is the paw raised.

Paw in Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 1057, is defined as "a hand." Hand in Random House Webster's College Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 593, means "a pledge, especially in marriage." In the same source, on page 1013, a pledge means "the resulting legal relationship." And marriage in Merriam Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Eleventh Edition, copyright 2009, on page 761, is "the state of being united to a person of the same sex in a relationship like that of a traditional marriage."

Clearly, what President Barack Obama's goal has sought to achieve politically is the resulting legal relationship of gays and lesbians who seek to be united to a person of the same sex in a relationship like that of a traditional marriage. We're talking about same-sex marriage, the issue that he has raised.

Raise the present tense of raised in The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 982, is synonymous to institute; exalt; dignify; promote. Promote in Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1981, on page 1815, means "to present for public acceptance through advertising and publicity."

Furthermore, we can determine that President Barack Obama has instituted same-sex marriage in America. He has exalted and dignified the lifestyle of gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender people by presenting same-sex marriage for public acceptance through advertising and publicity.

Yet, there is more of his character to be revealed. The last portion of the definition of leopard is, "...the head facing the observer." What does this mean?

The American Heritage Dictionary, copyright 1985, on page 598, describes a head as "a mental aptitude." Webster's Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1981, on page 1411, defines mental as "of or relating to mind." In the same source on page 108, aptitude means "a tendency to learn or understand." While, on page 2354, a tendency is, “the designed and purposeful trend of something written or said.” And a trend, on page 2438, is “a general movement; swing; to veer in a new direction.”

From these facts, we can assert that President Barack Obama has caused a general movement that is designed and purposeful for the mind of the observer to learn or understand what has been written or said concerning the lifestyle of gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender people, as well as same-sex marriage. The purpose of this general movement that is designed for the mind of the observer is so that there will be a swing in America and in foreign countries to veer in a new direction. It is this swing that is facing the observer. Let us now understand this.

Swing in The American Heritage Dictionary, copyright 1985, on page 1228, means “to cause to change from one attitude, position, opinion, or emotion to another.” While, change in Webster’s Third New International Dictionary, copyright 1981, on pages 373-374, is to “alter; modify; to make over to a radically different form, state or disposition; convert; transform; to adopt different customs, methods, attitude; a departure from the norm; a moral conversion.”

From this body of facts, we can confirm that the general movement that President Barack Obama has caused by moving forward the gay lifestyle is so that people in America and foreign countries will alter their position and modify their opinions about homosexuality and same-sex marriage, so that they are made over to a radically different form, state, and disposition concerning this issue. In essence, this general movement has been designed and is purposeful for the mind of the observer to convert and transform his thinking by adopting different customs, methods, and attitudes so that the observer departs from the norm and undergoes a moral conversion. It is this general movement that is facing the observer.

Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, defines face, the root of facing, as "to acknowledge and accept." To acknowledge in the same source means, "to recognize the claims of; to admit or affirm as genuine."

This general movement designed for the mind of the observer is causing the observer to recognize and accept the claims of, and admit, or affirm as genuine the lifestyle of gay people as well as same-sex marriage. Let us look deeper into the fact that the observer has to accept the claims of same-sex marriage.

Accept, in Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2014, Computer Software, means to "be resigned to." In the same source resigned is "feeling or showing resignation." Now, resignation is "patient submission; passive acceptance; acquiescence." Acquiescence means, "agreement without protest."

The Synonym Finder by J.I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 171, expresses that a claim, the singular form of claims, is the same as have rights to; license. And genuine, in the same source on page 455, means just; legal.

What we now understand is that this general movement designed for the mind of the observer is so that the observer feels or shows patient submission, passive acceptance, and is in agreement to gays having the legal right to their lifestyle and a license to marry without protest, but admitting or affirming that it is just and legal. So, who is the observer?

Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, under reference number 575.6, defines the observer as the "audience." Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 92, describes an audience as "one's public; a group of persons assembled to hear and see a speaker; all those persons who are tuned in to a particular radio or TV program; all those persons who read what one writes or hear what one says.”

The observer to which this general movement is designed for is President Obama’s public. It is directed at any group of persons assembled to hear and see him speak. It is aimed at all those persons who are tuned in to a particular radio or TV program to hear or see what he has to say. Even more, it is intended for all those persons who read what President Obama writes or hear what he says. The aim is that these people feel or show patient submission, passive acceptance, and are in agreement with gays having the legal right to their lifestyle and a license to marry. He is not just satisfied with making this issue legal. He wants the public to not even protest it, but rather, he wants the public to admit or affirm that it is just and legal.

This general movement that President Barack Obama has caused by moving forward the gay lifestyle is so that people in America and foreign countries will alter their position and modify their opinions about homosexuality and same-sex marriage, so that they are made over to a radically different form, state, and disposition concerning this issue. Basically, this general movement has been designed and is purposeful for the mind of his public to convert and transform its thinking by adopting different customs, methods, and attitudes so that the public in America and the world departs from the norm and undergoes a moral conversion.

Has there not been a complete change in America concerning homosexuality and same-sex marriage since President Barack Obama took office nearly eight years ago? He certainly fits the symbolisms of the leopard of Revelation Chapter 13, verse 2. Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה בן יהוה!

These facts confirm and solidify our case that the beast like unto a leopard is President Barack Obama. Let us now see what he shall do as he seeks to carry on to a further point all of what former President George W. Bush began, which is the rise of a One World Religion of Christianity, a World Government through trade, continue to wage war in the Middle East to convert its people to Christianity, and persecute The Nation of יהוה by slandering the P.E.E.S.S. Foundation. We return to our foundation Scripture in Revelation, Chapter 13, verse 2:

...and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

I have seen many artistic representations of this leopard with the feet of a bear and the mouth of lion, as theologians seek to interpret the Scripture. However, it has always been a mystery because it has never been logically unraveled; especially, since they claim that these animals were different nations and empires. But today, through the Divine Ten-Step Study Method of יהוה בן יהוה, He has shed His light upon us, and the true meaning of this Scripture shall be exposed.

So how are President Barack Obama's feet or what he shall use to stand on as the feet of a bear? Foot, the singular form of feet, in Merriam Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, Eleventh Edition, copyright 2009, on page 487, is defined as "the terminal part of the vertebrate leg upon which an individual stands."

Here we have a very precise definition that has to be broken down for a clear understanding of President Barack Obama's feet. We will first explain what the terminal part means and then elaborate on the vertebrate leg upon which he shall stand.

Let us now understand what is the terminal part? As referenced in Webster's New World Dictionary, copyright 2002, on page 1477, terminal is defined as "having to do with a term." While, term, in the same source and page is “the stipulated duration of an appointment to a particular office.” While, part, from terminal part in Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, under reference number 429.3-4, means “Constitution; constitutional rights.”

From these sources, we can substantiate that President Barack Obama shall use the Constitution, particularly, the constitutional rights that have to do with the stipulated duration of his appointment to the particular office of president to stand upon. He shall, specifically, use the vertebrate leg to stand on this issue. Since it is of the vertebrate leg upon which he shall stand as an individual, we must understand what this signifies.

Thorndike Barnhart High School Dictionary, copyright 1968, on page 666, defines the word of to be the same as “by.” In the same source, on page 132, by is “through the means or use of.” While a vertebrate in Merriam Webster’s Collegiate Dictionary, Eleventh Edition, copyright 2009, on page 1391, is defined as “organized or constructed in orderly or developed form.”

We can gather that through the means of or use of a leg that is organized or constructed in orderly or developed form, President Barack Obama shall stand on this issue as an individual. We must now expose what this leg represents.

In accordance with The Concise Oxford Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 810, a leg is described as “a run made on a single tack.” In Collins English Dictionary, copyright 2015, on page 698 a run is “the act of running; to stand as a candidate for office.” An act, on page 13 of the Webster’s New World College Dictionary, copyright 2002, is recorded as “a decision (of a legislature).” And lastly, legislature, on page 819, is defined as “a body of persons given the responsibility and power to make laws for a country, specifically, the lawmaking body of a state, corresponding to the U.S. Congress.”

We now understand that the leg represents a decision that shall be made by a body of persons given the responsibility and power to make laws in this country; specifically, the lawmaking body of a state, corresponding to the U.S. Congress, for President Barack Obama to run for office. This decision shall be organized or constructed in an orderly or developed form that it shall cause President Barack Obama to stand as a candidate for office on a single tack.

It is important to thoroughly understand this because legally he can't run again. Also, as a Democrat, the only candidates in his party that are running for office are Hillary Clinton and Bernie Sanders. Furthermore, he is not on the ballot, and is not publicly seeking re-election. So, the question is how shall he stand as a candidate for office on a single tack?

And defining this phrase is exactly where we shall begin with our next seminar: The Beast Like Unto a Leopard, Part Two.
