

Judgment Shall

Sit

Part 2

Shalom, and welcome to the Twenty-Third Annual Feast of Weeks 6006 and to this seminar entitled, Judgment Shall Sit, Part 2. I thank and praise יהוה בן יהוה for His mercy and kindness, for without His laying down His life, we would not have a chance to be saved. Praise יהוה!

Thank Him for His blessings, for without יהוה בן יהוה, none of this that we see around us today would be possible. Praise יהוה! Thank יהוה בן יהוה for answering our prayers, for without Him, we would still be lost. Praise יהוה! Therefore,

Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb (Psalm 37:1-2).

I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire.

A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened (Daniel 7:9-10).

Praise יהוה!

To bring everyone up to date, let's recap our findings in Judgment Shall Sit, Part 1. From the investigation of Daniel 7:8, the facts showed that a leader, called the "little" horn, is a present-day President who is a junior bearing the same name as his father, who was also a President. He is a President whose "official" purpose is to pluck up three kings who were around when his father was President.

This President is the most powerful man on Earth, because the power he wields is not his own, but rather the power that he has received from Satan. We discovered that he is one who argues with and rebels against the "righteous laws of God, יהיה, as found in the Holy Bible. An extensive examination of the facts confirmed the "little" horn to be George W. Bush, the President of the United States.

Further exploration disclosed that after President George W. Bush plucks up the three kings, he would then turn his attention to his homeland. In his homeland, His primary objective would be to make known his deep hatred for and blatant opposition to the Most High. Therefore, he would not only speaks great words against the most High, יהוה בן יהוה -- the One anointed by יהוה to bring down Satan and his angels-- but he would also wear out the saints of the most High, according to Daniel 7:25, which was the basis for receiving power from Satan in the first place.

This brings us up to the point at which we shall begin our discussion today. So, let us continue on in our study of the “true” character of the “little” horn, President George W. Bush, by reading Daniel 8:25, read:

And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but shall be broken without hand.

In order to understand this Scripture, it must be decoded. We shall begin with the first sentence: “And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; . . .”

In accordance with Microsoft Encarta College Dictionary, copyright 2001, on page 49, it states that, “using and at the beginning of a sentence can often be an effective way of drawing attention to what follows; a conjunction used to indicate an additional fact.” Therefore, and was used at the beginning of this sentence to draw our attention to the fact that some additional facts follow that which has already been stated.

The next word in the Scripture is through. In The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 1223, through means “under the auspices of; through the agency.” Let us break down each of these definitions, beginning with the first definition: “under the auspices of.”

In the Microsoft Encarta College Dictionary, copyright 2001, on page 89, under the auspices of means “with the help or support of a person or organization.” In accordance with Webster’s New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 2001, on page 94, auspice means “patronage.” In the same source, on page 1056, patron, the root of patronage, in Latin means protector, defender.

From the first definition of through, we can assert that with the help or support of a person or organization, President Bush shall give the appearance of being the protector and defender of the American people, that he might implement “his” policy and cause craft to prosper in his hand.

The next definition of through is “through the agency of.” The Cassell Compact Dictionary, copyright 1998, on page 22, defines agency as “an administrative department of a government.” According to the Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 137, under reference number 102.2, agency also means “instrumentality.” Instrumentality, under reference number 511.1, on page 477, is “influence.” Then influence takes us to reference number 512.1, on page 478, and to a number of definitions including “power; force; advantage; authority; final say.”

Thus, with the help or support of an administrative department of the government, President Bush shall use his power, force, advantage, authority, and final say to execute his policy. Let us find out what these words mean.

Using The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1984, I found power on page 1039, and it means “national strength.” From there, I consulted the Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 518, to look up national, reference number 564.3, which turns out to be “departmental; governmental.” Strength, in Bartlett’s, reference number 674.1, on page 596, is equivalent to “secureness” of which the root word is secure. We see here that the word through is referring to a department within the government that deals with security.

Now let’s put these definitions into context. The word through, by way of agency, has just led us to President Bush’s new department in the government, which was said to be for the purpose of defending and protecting the American people. It is called the Department of Homeland Security. With the help or support of this department, President George W. Bush will exercise his presidential powers to implement his policy.

Let’s continue on with some of the other definitions of the word influence, which are force, advantage, authority, and final say. In accordance with The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1984, on page 515, force is “persuasive power.” Next, let’s look at advantage, on page 20, which means “superior.” Page 91 lists authority as meaning “legal power; judicial precedent.”

The President is using to the fullest extent his persuasive power and superior position to implement his policy. In fact, he is using the legal power that has been conferred upon him to such a degree that it shall set a judicial precedent: All while under the guise of “national security.”

Now, let’s go on to final say as a part of through as it relates to influence. In Webster’s New World College Dictionary of the American Language, copyright 1957, on page 543, final means “last; leaving no further chance for action.” On page 1298, say means “power and authority to make a final decision.”

The President of the United States has been given the power and the authority to make “final” decisions for the American people. He has the last word, and his decisions leave no further chance for action. His legal power even supersedes that of the Supreme Court, thus demonstrating the “might” of the “little” horn, President Bush, who will use all of his unlimited power, supreme authority, and collective resources to implement his policy to cause “craft” to prosper in his hand.

Now that we understand the means through which the “little” horn, President George W. Bush, shall use his presidential power and authority, let us now find out exactly how he shall use the Department of Homeland Security to exert his powerful influence. The next words in Daniel 8:25 point directly to the answer, and it reads: “And through his policy...” He shall use the Department of Homeland Security to implement “his policy.”

In Webster’s Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, copyright 1976, on page 1072, his means “something that belongs to him.” His, as used here, is a possessive adjective. Consequently, “his” let’s us know that the policy we are about to discuss belongs to the “little” horn, President George W. Bush. Praise יהוה.

Now what is his policy all about? In accordance with Webster’s New World College Dictionary, Fourth Edition, copyright 2001, on page 1114, policy means “a plan or course of action, as pursued by a government.” This tells us that the “little” horn shall use a plan or course of action pursued by the government to cause his craft to prosper.

Continuing with Webster's Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, on page 1754, policy is also defined as "administration based primarily on temporal interest." In Webster's New World College Dictionary of the American Language, copyright 1957, on page 19, administration is equivalent to "the management of governmental affairs; the executive officials of a government and their policy." On page 1500, temporal means "of this world; distinguished from spiritual." Back to the Webster's Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, on page 1178, interest is listed as "influenced by."

Thus, we can see from these facts that under the management of governmental affairs, President Bush shall use the executive officials of the government and their policy to pursue a plan or course of action that will be based primarily on things of this world as opposed to spiritual influences. Let us hear what John 12:31 and 1 Corinthians 1:20 have to say about this. Read:

John 12:31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

This is Judgment Day, and the prince or ruler who pursues a plan or course of action that is based primarily on things of this world, as distinguished from “spiritual” influences, shall be cast out. And that is not all, for יהוה has made foolish the wisdom of this world; therefore, the policy to cause craft to prosper in the hand of President George W. Bush shall be based on “foolish” wisdom.

Using the Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, on page 1754, policy is defined as “a wise scheme esp. a cunning contrivance.” In accordance with the Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary, Computer Software, copyright 2001, wise means “way.” From that same source, way means “the fact of doing as one pleases.” As we view scheme in the same dictionary, we find it is “a plan for doing something; esp.: a crafty plot.”

Using the wisdom of this world along with his Presidential power and authority, these facts tell us that the “little” horn, President Bush, shall use the Department of Homeland Security to do whatever he pleases to implement his wise, crafty plot to cause craft to prosper in his hand. However, he can fool the people most of the time, but nothing gets pass יהוה. Let’s turn to 1 Corinthians 3:19:

For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with יהוה. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

The “little” horn, President George W. Bush’s, wise, crafty plot is foolishness with יהוה, and, as such, he shall be taken in his “own” craftiness. Praise יהוה!

Now how does a cunning contrivance fit into President Bush’s policy. When viewed in the Webster’s New World College Dictionary, Third Edition, copyright 1996, on page 338, cunning is defined as “skill in deception; slyness; craftiness.” On page 303, same reference, contrive, the root word of contrivance, means “to scheme for evil purposes.”

When these definitions are viewed together, they add still another dimension because they verify for us that the Department of Homeland Security will exercise a high degree of proficiency in deception and craftiness, as it will “slyly” carry out the President’s crafty scheme, which will be solely for evil purposes. Praise יהוה.

Given that his “policy” is what he shall use to cause “craft” to prosper in his hand, there are further aspects of “policy” that need to be explored. Therefore, according to The New Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance of the Bible, Hebrew-Chaldee Dictionary, copyright 1990, on page 116, under the Hebrew reference #7922, policy means “intelligence; discretion.” Let us analyze each of these words.

First, let’s explore intelligence. As we consult The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1984, on page 692, we find intelligence means “the gathering and distribution of information; in government, information about an enemy or potential enemy; the evaluated conclusions drawn from such information.” This is talking about the gathering and distribution of false information that the government shall use to draw evaluated conclusions.

Now to deduce this information even further, let's go to the word gathering. The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1984, on page 546, defines gathering as "a collection." On page 264, collect, the root word of collection means to "infer." The same reference, on page 682, let's us see that infer is the same as "hint." Page 627 contains hint, which is defined as "an indirect or covert suggestion or implication." The Merriam-Webster's Dictionary, Computer Software - 2001, defines covert as "hidden; secret."

What we can conclude from policy, as it further relates to the "little" horn, is that President Bush shall cause craft to prosper by using the Department of Homeland Security for the gathering and distribution of false information: Information that shall be collected about an enemy or potential enemy, and a suggestion or implication is put forth that there is something hidden or secret going on concerning that enemy. Then, this false information will be distributed in the form of hints and inferences, thus causing this false information to be used to draw evaluated conclusions. This is another form of skillful deception that falls right into the same category of the crafty plot or scheme for evil purposes used by the Department of Homeland Security. Praise יהוה.

Now this brings us to our second definition of policy, which is “discretion.” In the Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary, Computer Software - 2001, discretion means “conservative.” President George W. Bush admits that he is a conservative in his autobiography entitled, A Charge To Keep, copyright 1999, on page 235 and I quote: “I am a compassionate conservative... I welcome the label. And on this ground, I will make my stand.” He goes on to write on the same page, “Compassionate conservatism outlines a new vision of the proper role of the American government.”

Now it becomes our job to go to the books of understanding to gain a proper understanding of what he means by being a conservative, especially as it relates to “his policy.” Let’s start in The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978. On page 219, conservative is equivalent to “rightist.” From the Webster’s Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, copyright 1976, on page 1956, rightist is defined as “one who believes in or advocates principles associated with the Right.” The Merriam-Webster’s Dictionary, Computer Software - 2001, defines the Right as “political conservatives.” Political from the same source is “relating to government.”

We have just established from our reference experts that conservative means the Right as it relates to government, so let’s go ahead and explore the word right. Going back to Webster’s Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, copyright 1976, on page 1955, right is defined as “sometimes advocating the establishment of authoritarian political order by revolution or other forceful means.” Let us closely examine this definition.

From the Webster’s New Collegiate Dictionary, copyright 1979, on page 75, authoritarian is equivalent to “favoring a concentration of power in a leader not constitutionally responsible to the people.” In Webster’s II New College Dictionary, copyright 1999, on page 950, revolution is defined as “an abrupt political overthrow or seizure of power brought about from within a given system.”

From our definition of discretion, which comes from the word policy, we see that the “little” horn, President George W. Bush, advocates the establishment of a political order favoring a concentration of power in a leader not constitutionally responsible to the people. Since he was not elected by the people, he is not constitutionally responsible to them. Therefore, he will institute his policy to cause craft to prosper in his hand by causing an abrupt political overthrow or seizure of power that will be brought about from within the Department of Homeland Security or by other forceful means. This is what he welcomes and makes his stand on. And, as he stated, this is also the new vision he has outlined for the proper role of the American government.

Let me refer you to the book Concentration Camps, by יהודה בן יהודה, copyright 1995, in which prophecy of this very Department is described on page 10. יהודה בן יהודה writes: “A major task force of federal intelligence and law enforcement agencies including the F.B.I, the C.I.A., U.S. Marshals, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, Customs, the Coast Guard, etc.--will join with local and state police in massive roundups to haul in lists of suspects who will fill these improvised stockades.” We have witnessed this happening this very day. We are witnesses to prophecy written by בן יהוה יהוה coming into fruition. Praise יהוה.

יהוה בן יהוה continues on page 16, “Any President can use FEMA to seize control of the entire U.S. government by declaring a ‘secret crisis’ that exists only on his say so. It doesn’t have to go in the paper. They don’t have to announce it on the radio. It’s just a secret crisis in the White House on his say so.” Doesn’t that describe the establishment of an authoritarian political order by forceful means, which concentrates power in the hands of the President making him not constitutionally responsible to the people? Another prophecy is being fulfilled! Praise יהוה! The Word is alive in יהוה בן יהוה and the Scripture is being fulfilled. Please turn to Matthew 26:54, read:

But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be?

These things must be that the Scriptures might be fulfilled. Praise יהוה.

We still have more to explore with the word policy in the Bartlett's Roget's Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 1197, where policy means “cunning.” Cunning, on page 721 of the same reference, is defined as “imposture; false promises; beguilement; hypocrisy; old-boy network.” We must define each of these words.

From The American College Dictionary, copyright 1955, imposture means “deception practiced under an assumed character.” On page 313, deception is “an artifice.” Page 71 lists artifice as “a crafty device or expedient; “a clever trick or stratagem.” On page 331 a device is a “plan or scheme for effecting a purpose.” On page 424, expedient is “conducive to advantage or interest, as opposed to right.” Assume, on page 76 of the same reference, is “to take on or put on oneself.”

We seem to be getting back to exposing more of President Bush’s “true” character. From cunning, we can add to his “true” character, that of being an artificer: As opposed to doing that which is right, President Bush has put into place an agency, the Department of Homeland Security, which he shall use to effect his clever tricks and delusive stratagems that are very conducive to his advantage and self-interest.

Let us see how the Bible describes an artificer. An artificer is a descendent of Cain, according to Genesis 4:17, 18, 19, and 22:

17 And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch.

18 And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Mehujael: and Mehujael begat Methusael: and Methusael begat Lamech.

19 And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

22 And Zillah, she also bare Tubalcain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubalcain was Naamah.

Let's see what President Bush, the artificer, this descendent of Cain, is taking it upon himself to do by defining the next words for "policy" via the word cunning which are "false promises." In The Synonym Finder by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 393, false is equivalent to "Machiavellian." In the Britannica Ready Reference Encyclopedia, Computer Software, Machiavellian is derived from Niccolo Machiavelli. "His famous treatise The Prince (1513, published 1532), is a handbook for rulers;... He viewed The Prince as an objective description of political reality;... He suggested that ruthless cunning is appropriate to the conduct of government. ‘Machiavellian’ has come to mean deceitful, unscrupulous, and manipulative.” What is a promise? On page 947 of The Synonym Finder, promise is “solemn word; vow.”

From these reference sources, we are informed that the solemn word of President George W. Bush, the artificer or descendant of Cain, is based on deceitful, unscrupulous, manipulative vows. Under his policy, such ruthless cunning behavior is appropriate to the conduct of government in the United States of America and, as such, is a political reality. Praise יהוה.

This is the same person who shall cause “craft” to prosper in his hand. How is he going to do that? He is going to use beguilement, the next definition of cunning. In The Cassell Compact Dictionary, copyright 1998, on page 100, beguile is the root word of beguilement, and means “to charm away the weariness of.” On page 186, same reference, charm is “power of alluring.” Page 29, has allure meaning “to attract by the offer of some apparent good.”

Therefore, President Bush, this descendant of Cain, has the power to beguile the people by charming away or alluring them away from the weariness of their lives, such as being caught in the grips of constant fear based on “potential” terrorists threats which have led to more surveillance cameras everywhere you go; checking on book purchases and library cards usage; checking out which sites are visited on the internet; scrutinizing where people travel and how often; more extensive X-raying and searching bags and travelers, just to name a few. These and many more rights and freedoms are slowly being taken away under the promise of the apparent good in what he is doing, specifically combating the threat to national security.

The next definition of policy as it relates to the word cunning will lead us to the means by which the people will be beguiled. The next definition of cunning in this series is “hypocrisy.” In Bartlett’s Roget’s Thesaurus, copyright 1996, on page 232, under reference number 192.2, hypocrisy stands for “religiosity; false face.”

According to The Cassell Compact Dictionary, copyright 1998, on page 930, religiosity means “sanctimonious.” On page 975, sanctimonious is described as “making a show of piety.” Piety, on page 822, is “the quality of being pious.” Pious, is defined on page 826 as “reverencing God.” From The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 393, false is defined as “deceptive,” while on page 389, face is the same as “disguise.”

Oh, he puts on a show of being religious--“God” bless America. But what we glean from these facts is that under the deceptive disguise of making a show of reverencing God, President Bush will beguile the people by making it appear that his policy is based on the “good” he has learned from religious leaders. When, all the while, he is lying through his teeth. Turn to I John 2:4:

He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.

Need I say more? Praise יהוה.

Finally, we go on to old-boy, the last of the definitions of cunning from the perspective of policy, and will once again show the face the President really operates under. I looked in Webster's Third New International Dictionary and Seven Languages Dictionary, Vol. II, copyright 1976, on page 1570 under old-boy and the first definition is "OLD NICK." On page 1571, same reference, Old Nick is defined as "the personification of evil, devil, Satan."

In Webster's New World College Dictionary, copyright 1996, on page 377, Devil is "depicted as a man with horns." It was well established in Judgment Shall Sit, Part 1, that President George W. Bush is the "little" horn from Daniel 7:8. Now we run into a definition of Devil as a man with horns.

Therefore, let's explore what the word with means. The Random House College Dictionary, copyright 1990, on page 1512, defines with as "in some particular relation to (esp. implying connection)." From the word with, we find there is a particular relation between the Devil and the "little" horn President. There is some connection between the two.

Continuing on page 1113, of the same reference, relation is defined as “relationship; with a synonym of kinship.” From The Synonym Finder, by J. I. Rodale, copyright 1978, on page 628, kinship is synonymous to “descent.” These well-documented facts show that the Devil is a man with horns, who are kings or men of power and authority. But more specifically, we were shown that there is kinship through descent with respect to a man called the Devil and the “little” horn, President George W. Bush, which backs up Genesis 4:16-22. Turn to Acts 13:10, read:

And said, O full of all subtlety and mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right way of the Lord, יֵהוּהָ?

From all the facts we have gathered, it is clear that the “little horn, President George W. Bush, is full of all subtlety and mischief, a child of the devil, an enemy of righteousness, and will not cease to pervert the way of the Lord, יֵהוּהָ.

In summary, as the facts were decoded about this portion of Daniel 8:25, we first found that we were looking at a prophetic sign, specifically, that of an administrative department of the government, which has as its focus national security, the new Department of Homeland Security. It becomes a very influential agency, which will function as a means of increasing the persuasive power and might of the “little” horn President, George W. Bush.

He will take advantage of the superior and dominating position he has gained, through this department, to set up judicial precedents, which give him the final say in legal matters superseding even the Supreme Court.

His policy of running the business of government is based on temporal interests, the things of this world, as opposed to spiritual influences. These worldly interests are translated into a scheme or crafty plot to be administered under his new Department of Homeland Security, which ultimately allows President George W. Bush to do whatever he pleases. The crafty plan is skillful enough in deception and slyness that it conceals his evil purposes, one of which is to use intelligence agents to gather and distribute information about his “enemies” or “potential enemies” in the form of hints and inferences of wrong doing on their part.

The facts also showed that President George W. Bush is a conservative, who revealed his belief in principles associated with the Right. As a rightist, he is an authoritarian, who advocates political order by causing an abrupt political overthrow or seizure of power by forceful means, which will concentrate all the power into his hands, thereby making him not constitutionally responsible to the people.

We were able to discern that the establishment of the Department of Homeland Security and the President's establishment of authoritarian political order under the threat of national security are based on information so secret that the threats cannot be revealed even to local officials expected to protect against the threat.

We shouldn't be surprised by anything President George W. Bush, the "little" horn, does because we also found out that the President is an artificer, which lead us to his being a descendant of Cain; a child of the Devil, who uses ruthless cunning in conducting the business of government. And his plan is acceptable because he has beguiled the people into believing that what he is doing is for their own good and in the interest of national security. The people believe him because he is skillful at putting on a sanctimonious show of reverencing God, while all the time he is a liar and the truth is not in him (1 John 2:4). Praise יהוה! Praise יהוה!

I thank and praise יהוה בן יהוה for allowing me to be here this day. I thank and praise יהוה בן יהוה for his Divine Mind and understanding heart, and I hope He will bless me to be here with you at Feast of Tabernacles to continue on with decoding Daniel 8:25. Praise יהוה בן יהוה!
